LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

REMEMBER AND RENEW – OUR FUTURE TOGETHER KICKOFF WEEKEND!

For over 70 years, St. Columbkille Parish has been a steadfast home of faith, bringing generations of parishioners together in worship, celebrating the sacraments, caring for those in need, and passing on our Catholic faith to future generations. Through the dedication, generosity, and faithful stewardship of our parish community, St. Columbkille continues to be a strong and vibrant place to call our spiritual home.

As we look to the future, we have an exciting opportunity to build upon this legacy and prepare our parish and school for generations to come. Through our Remember & Renew campaign, we will address the evolving needs of our campus while creating a safer, more accessible, and welcoming environment for all. At the same time, Bishop Malesic has invited St. Columbkille to participate in the diocesan-wide Called to Flourish campaign, centered on three pillars: Worship, Evangelization, and Service. Together, these initiatives will strengthen parish life and help ensure that our community continues to flourish in faith, formation, and service.

Today, we are pleased to officially announce the Remember & Renew campaign. With a goal of $4 million, this campaign represents an important investment in both our parish and school while honoring the legacy entrusted to us by those who came before us.

Through Remember & Renew, We Will:

Enhance Our Sanctuary

and improve accessibility throughout our campus

Prioritize Safety

at our school for students and staff

Expand Opportunities

to better serve our parishioners and the broader community

Participate in the Diocese of Cleveland's Called to Flourish Campaign

supporting the broader mission of our Church

The success of Remember & Renew will require the participation of our entire parish community. We invite you to support the campaign in three important ways:

PRAY

for the success of our campaign and the future of St. Columbkille

PLEDGE

a meaningful gift in support of our shared vision

PARTICIPATE

by volunteering as a campaign phone caller

In the coming weeks, you will hear much more about Remember & Renew, the projects it will make possible, and the impact your participation can have. We ask you to keep your hearts and minds open as you prayerfully consider how you can be part of this important moment in the life of St. Columbkille.

Saturday's events will include the Rosary Run at 7 AM, and Pizza with the Priests after the 4 PM Mass in the School Gym where you can see some renderings of the renovated church and new adoration chapel. On Social Sunday, campaign volunteers will be available downstairs to answer questions and share additional information. Together, let us give thanks for God's blessings and embrace the next chapter of building a lasting foundation for generations to come.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

If you have questions about Remember & Renew, including volunteer opportunities, the campaign timeline, or other details, please contact Eric Perusek at the Parish Office at (216) 524-1987, ext. 21 or eperusek@stcolumbkilleparish.org.

SAINT CALLISTUS, PRAY FOR US!

On Tuesday, October 14th, we celebrate the feast day of an interesting man by the name of Callistus, who lived from the second to the third century AD. One of the curious things about him is that much of the information that we have concerning his life, comes from a biography written by his enemy. Calistus began life as a slave in an imperial Roman household, and his master appointed him as the manager of his banking business. The bank, however, failed and Callistus fled the city by ship in order to escape punishment. His master caught up with him and brought him back to Rome. He was then put on trial and sentenced to forced labor. Callistus managed to convince his master to release him so that he could recover the money he had unwisely lent and invested. But shortly after being released, he was arrested for starting a brawl in a Jewish synagogue, where he went to demand back the money that he had lent. As punishment, Callistus was sent to labor in the mines of Sardinia (possibly also due to him being a Christian during an era of persecution).

After laboring for some time, he was released with other Christians who were freed thanks to the negotiations between Pope St. Victor I and the Emperor (who was largely influenced by his Christian-friendly mistress). After being freed, Callistus was appointed by the Pope as the caretaker of a Christian cemetery outside the city of Rome. About nine years later, he was called back to Rome by Pope Zephyrinus and served as a trusted advisor and friend, eventually being ordained a deacon.

When Zephyrinus died around AD 219, Callistus was elected Pope during a very tumultuous time – not only was it during the era of persecution, where one could be put to death just for being a Christian, but there were all manner of heresies (false beliefs concerning the faith) creeping up around the empire. But perhaps the biggest issue that raised the anger of his opponents, was how he chose to deal with those who had committed serious sins. Among his principal adversaries was St. Hippolytus (who was a rival candidate for the papacy, and went into schism, becoming the first anti-pope in the Church's history) who thought that Callistus was far too merciful to sinners. According to Hippolytus, Pope Callistus would reconcile murderers, adulterers, those practicing contraception, and even idolaters after making a sincere confession.

For people like Hippolytus, the Church was seen as a collection of already saintly people, whereas Callistus saw the Church more in terms of how Pope Francis described it – as a “field hospital for sinners.” Pope Callistus chose to emphasize the mercy of God, and that, if we are willing to acknowledge the grave offense that we give to God through our sins and make a good confession, God will forgive us. Saint Callistus was martyred by an anti-Christian mob around AD 222 and is the first Pope after St. Peter to be honored as a martyr by the Church.

Saint Callistus reminds us that God's mercy is even greater than our sins (no matter what they are or how numerous they are). We can never wander so far from God that He cannot restore us to friendship with Himself; so long as we are willing to acknowledge, in sorrow, how gravely even our smallest sins offend His infinite goodness, and ask for His mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. When is the last time you made a good confession?

ANOINTING OF THE SICK – NEXT WEEKEND AFTER ALL THE MASSES!

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be given by Fr. Suso and Fr. Eli immediately after all our weekend Masses next weekend, October 17th - 18th. Anyone wishing to be anointed is invited to come forward in the center Communion line to one of our priests after the recessional hymn has concluded. For those with mobility issues, one of our priests will be available to come to you in the pew; simply raise your hand and we will come to you. Blessed be God who heals us in Christ.

Never forget, the Lord Jesus is with us, always!

Remember & Renew

our future together

Building a Foundation for Our Future

Due to the generosity of parishioners who have come before, we have saved $8 million of the necessary $12 million that is needed to complete our capital projects. The funds in-hand are evidence of the generosity and faithfulness of those who came before. Today, with our own generosity and faithfulness, we are invited to complete what earlier generations began.

Our campaign focuses on three main campaign initiatives as well as participation in the Diocese of Cleveland's Called to Flourish campaign. All of these initiatives provide opportunities for us to grow spiritually, educationally, and in fellowship with others.

Our Vision

Our vision addresses both the short and long-term needs of our parish and school. To ensure St. Columbkille can operate most effectively, safely, and efficiently, we must renovate the physical environment that requires capital investment following decades of use. With thoughtful repair and repurpose of spaces and facilities, we can effectively address the broader needs of our community.

Ways to Give

There are many different ways to give! Fill out a pledge card and return it in the weekly offertory basket, at the parish or school office, or by mail. Scan the QR code to the right or visit our website to contribute online. Questions? Contact Eric Perusek at eperusek@stcolumbkilleparish.org.
