LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

JESUS' THREE ADVENT COMINGS: HISTORY, MYSTERY, MAJESTY

The Advent season is all about watching and waiting for Jesus' coming. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that the character of Advent is on Christ, but the focus is on the entirety of His comings: When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for His Second Coming. By celebrating the precursor's (St. John the Baptist) birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to his desire: "He must increase, but I must decrease." (CCC #524)

The great sense of Advent in the liturgical life of the Church identifies the coming of Jesus in three amazing actions: The coming of Christ in history (time), mystery (sacrament/Eucharist) and majesty (the coming of Christ at the end of time). Each of these actions reveals for the faithful the activity of Christ present in the life of the created world. In each of these ways, we come to know more fully the sense of the manifestation of the Incarnation of the Son of God.

Jesus' first coming was in history. God has already broken into history. He did come at Christmas, that first Christmas, 2,000 years ago. God took on human flesh and was born in Bethlehem. Advent helps us to spiritually prepare for the celebration of Christmas. For Christmas is an event so important, a liturgical feast so glorious, that we need some time to prepare for it. We decorate our homes and our churches in preparation for Christmas, and we decorate our lives with special Advent liturgies, and prayers, and by practicing the Advent virtues of faith, hope, joy, love, and patience, and by engaging in extra acts of mercy and charity.

Secondly, Jesus comes right now in mystery. He comes to us in the liturgical and sacramental life of the Church: In the pouring of water at Baptism, at the absolution of sins in Confession, at the sacramental Anointing of the Sick—God enters into the lives of individual Christians through the Sacraments. He comes to us at every celebration of Mass, in the Word proclaimed and truly present in the Eucharist. Jesus comes to us in our private prayer lives, too, doesn't He, when we are at home contemplating His Word, bringing to Him our doubts, our wounds, our anxieties, our gratitude for blessings. As we draw close to God in prayer, God draws close to us, with His gifts of peace, healing, strength, consolation, and courage. Both in our private prayer and our public liturgical sacramental life, the Lord's Advent is mysterious and subtle. Even for lifelong Catholics, His presence is sometimes difficult to detect, His presence is veiled behind the gestures and words and ritual elements. What the senses fail to grasp can only be detected through faith. This is not unlike how many of Jesus' contemporaries did not recognize Him as God when He came in history 2,000 years ago. In the prologue of John's Gospel, we hear the sad words that "he came into the world, but the world did not know him, and his own did not recognize or accept him." The worldly did not recognize Him then, and the worldly do not recognize Him now.

Lastly, the Lord will come in majesty at the end of time as judge of the living and the dead. We proclaim this every Sunday when we pray the Nicene Creed saying, "He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end." Jesus' coming in majesty will not be veiled, or mysterious, as it was 2,000 years ago and in the sacraments. When He comes again, every knee on earth will bend, every tongue will proclaim Jesus Christ is Lord. He will not come in a hidden way, but with a blare of trumpets. When will this be? We know neither the day nor the hour. He could return at any moment, in 10 minutes, 10 years, 10 millennia. We do not know when the Lord will return, so, we are to live always with the Lord's return in mind, as if His return is imminent. Our souls are to be prepared for Christ's final advent by confessing any serious sins in the Sacrament of Confession; we are to be prepared by not being too attached to material earthly things, by busying ourselves not with selfish pursuits, but living generously for God and others.

We also prepare well by savoring each moment the Lord has blessed us with. Each moment is a gift given to us to grow in holiness and merit grace. In a sense, we are to live each day as if it were our last. Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man, the good things which God has prepared for those who love Him. The Lord's return in glorious majesty at the end of time should fill us with urgency to make sure that our souls are prepared, but also to use every moment wisely, with gratitude, and joyful expectation of the blessings to come.

WHAT IS THE MEANING BEHIND THE ADVENT WREATH CANDLES?

The word "advent" comes from the Latin word "adventus," which means "coming." For Catholics, Advent is the four-week season leading up to Christmas. During Advent, we anticipate the coming of Jesus at Christmas as well as prepare ourselves for Jesus' final coming at the end of time. It's a time full of reflection, excitement, and hope. The Advent candles represent Jesus coming as the light in darkness. One candle is lit each Sunday until all four candles are lit. Each of the candles represents an aspect of preparation during the Season of Advent:

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

- 1. The Candle of Hope; Color: Purple. Purple is the primary color associated with Advent. Within the Catholic Church it symbolizes penance, preparation, and sacrifice. During the first week of Advent, we look forward to Jesus' coming with hope.
- 2. The Candle of Peace; Color: Purple. During this second week of Advent, we reflect on our lives and work on becoming better-versions-of-ourselves in preparation for Jesus' coming.
- 3. The Candle of Joy; Color: Pink. This third candle is pink, symbolizing anticipation and rejoicing. During the third week of Advent, we are filled with joy for the near arrival of Jesus on Christmas Day.
- 4. The Candle of Love; Color: Purple. During this final week of Advent we rejoice in the endless love that God has for us, which is made apparent in the birth of His Son: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." - John 3:16

FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY IS A HOLY DAY!

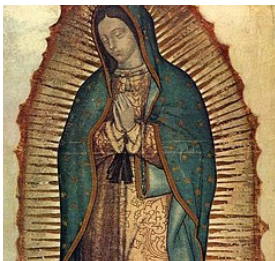

This year, because the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary falls on Monday, December 8th, the Holy Day does not have a Vigil Mass. We will have two Masses on Monday, December 8th in celebration of the Immaculate Conception; 8:15 AM with our school children, and 7 PM. Our country is dedicated to Holy Mary of the Immaculate Conception, so please come and celebrate our nation's patronal feast day!

CHRISTMAS MASS AND CONFESSION SCHEDULE!

It is never too early to start planning for going to Confession and Mass for Christmas. We will have extra Confessions on Monday, December 22nd from 1-2 PM, 7-8 PM in church and on Tuesday, December 23rd from 1-2 PM. Our Christmas Eve Masses on Wednesday, December 24th will be at 4 PM, 6 PM, and 10 PM. Christmas Day Masses will be on Thursday, December 25th at 8 AM, 10 AM, 12 PM. On behalf our entire parish family and parish staff, I want to wish you and your families a very blessed upcoming Christmas season.

Never forget, the Lord is with us, always!

PARISH NEWS

CELEBRATE OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

On Friday, December 12th, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Pro-Life Group of St. Columbkille invites you to join in celebrating Our Queen and Mother as Patroness of the Americas and of the Unborn. The image has special significance during the Advent Season because Mary is depicted as pregnant with Jesus. Do you feel called to pray to Our Lady in a more intimate way? Consider inviting her into your home this year! In the back of the church this weekend, there are sign-ups for our traveling image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Please sign up to have Our Lady of Guadalupe visit your home for a family Novena.

FINDING THE TREASURE CALLED MARY

Prepare your heart this Advent by joining the Finding the Treasure Called Mary Apostolate for a Marian retreat, "Awaiting Christ with Mary: An Advent Journey," on Thursday, December 18, 2025, at the Jesuit Retreat House, 5629 State Road, Parma. Taking place the week before Christmas, this day of reflection offers a spiritual head start—guiding you in peace and purpose as you journey toward the birth of Christ with renewed grace and readiness. Our talks will focus on the four themes of Advent through Mary: Hope: Mary's Courage – Deacon Paul Kutolowski; Faith and Peace: Mary's Fiat – Brother and Seminarian Matthew Grzybowski; Joy: Mary's Joy – Father William Browne; and Love: Mary's Gift – Father Robert Ramser.

The day includes quiet reflection, Mass, and lunch. Registration and continental breakfast begin at 8 AM; talks begin at 8:30 AM. TICKETS: $75 per person or $140 per couple. Please drop off payments to Jennifer at the Saint Columbkille Church Rectory, 6740 Broadview Road, Parma, OH 44134, in an envelope marked with your name, phone number, and "Marian Advent Retreat." Make checks payable to "Finding the Treasure Called Mary." For alternate payment methods or delivery, contact Linda Lagunzad at (216) 544-3699. Registration deadline: Friday, December 12.

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY

We invite all families, students, and parishioners to join us for our annual Christmas Tree lighting ceremony and caroling on December 12th at 7 PM! Come celebrate the joy of the season as each grade level lights their Christmas Tree and we sing favorite holiday carols together. Cookies and hot cocoa will be served afterward for everyone to enjoy.

GIVING TREE

It's time to turn our thoughts to our long-standing tradition of the Giving Tree. To participate, select a paper ornament from the Giving Tree located in the church vestibule. Each ornament contains a specific request for a gift card for a person or family in need. Purchase the recommended gift card and place it in the Giving Tree treasure chest in the church vestibule (located next to the Giving Tree) no later than December 9th. Be sure to attach the tag to the gift card to ensure that your gift goes to the specific person you wish to bless.

THANK YOU, NOVEMBER VOLUNTEERS!

The hearts and lives of so many were touched by the acts of service performed by St. Columbkille parishioners this past month. The November Service Saturday projects were a tremendous success! Over 500 Christmas cards were written for the homebound, nursing home residents, juveniles in the detention center, military men and women, and those being assisted through our Giving Tree program. Sixteen centerpieces were made for the dining tables at the St. Augustine Hunger Center and were enjoyed by the thousands who were served there on Thanksgiving Day. Those needing food and clothing were ministered to at the Ozanam Food Pantry and Clothing Bank at Holy Name Church. Thirty-five residents at Broadview Multi-Care Center were visited and treated to holiday crafts and treats. In addition, the compassion and generosity of our parishioners made the Winter Outerwear Collection an overwhelming success! Hundreds of winter coats and jackets and even more hats, gloves, and scarves were donated to help clothe the poor in the Slavic Village area. Special thanks to our Warm-Up America Ministry who donated dozens of their hand-made hats and matching scarves, and to our Good Samaritan Ministry who sponsored the Winter Coat Drive. Also in the month of November, St. Columbkille Meal Ministry volunteers shared their time and talents with our homebound parishioners by preparing and delivering delicious, home-style meals. Thank you to all our volunteers for your tremendous witness to St. Columbkille's commitment to "Serve Others"!

DECEMBER SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Join fellow parishioners as we come together to Serve Others. There are several different projects planned throughout the day. See all of the listings below. There's something for everyone!

MEAL MINISTRY (DECEMBER 12 & 19)

Preparing and delivering homestyle meals for our homebound parishioners. Kitchen Workers are needed from 2:30 - 4:30 PM in the SCS Kitchen to help prepare food and pack meals. Drivers are needed to deliver the meals to our homebound parishioners between 4:30 - 5:00 PM. Report to the St. Columbkille School kitchen at 4:15 PM to pick up meals and a delivery route. Deliveries should take no longer than 30 to 45 minutes to complete. Drivers may bring along a buddy to help carry the meals from the car to the person receiving the meals. Children may accompany an adult on deliveries.

BROADVIEW MULTI-CARE CENTER

Join us at Broadview Multi-Care Center for their annual Christmas Program, performed by the residents and assisted by St. Columbkille volunteers. The residents have been hard at work planning and rehearsing for this special event, but they can't do it alone. Volunteers are needed to assist with costuming, cues, pushing a wheelchair or two, and serving refreshments after the performance. Volunteers should meet in the 3rd floor atrium at Broadview Multi-Care at 1:15 PM on Sunday, December 14th. The program will begin promptly at 2:00 PM. Light refreshments will be provided. Wear some red or green to add to the festivities!

FOOD AND CLOTHING PANTRY VOLUNTEER

Serve the poor of the Slavic Village area as St. Columbkille volunteers staff the Food and Clothing Pantry at Ozanam Center. Pack bags of canned food and produce, carry bags of food to pick-up line, and sort and hang clothing donations at the Ozanam Center at Holy Name Church on Broadway Ave. Volunteers must be able to lift and carry boxes and bags of groceries and must be at least 13 years old.

Under 16 must be accompanied by an adult. All volunteers should meet at the Ozanam Center at 8:30 AM on Saturday, December 20th.

CHURCH AND ADORATION CHAPEL CLEANING

Let's give our church and adoration chapel a good cleaning! Help is needed to wash down the pews and kneelers before the holidays. Meet in the church vestibule at 9:30 AM on Saturday, December 20th. Please bring a bucket and cleaning rag; soap and water will be provided. Join us! Many hands make light work!
