LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

SAINT SCHOLASTICA PRAY FOR US!

On Tuesday, February 10th we celebrate the feast day of St. Scholastica. Scholastica was the twin sister of the great St. Benedict of Nursia whose monastic community not only created Western monasticism as we know it but served as the bedrock of the new Western Christendom that rose after the fall of the Roman Empire. Benedict and Scholastica are two deeply inspiring saints and siblings.

Benedict and Scholastica were born around the year 480 AD, just four years after the final sack of Rome in 476 by Odoacer. They were born in Nursia, a town in the beautiful Umbria region of Italy (where Assisi is also located). Scholastica consecrated herself to God as a young girl.

When her brother Benedict moved to Monte Cassino to lead the monastery there, Scholastica moved to the same region of Italy and founded a convent for women about five miles away. We know that St. Benedict was head of both monks and nuns, so it seems that Scholastica was abbess of her community but took spiritual and practical direction from her brother. Their Benedictine orders are still thriving all over the world today.

Once a year, Benedict and Scholastica would visit one another. Since Scholastica was not allowed to enter her brother's monastery, they would meet at a nearby house. The two siblings spent their time in prayer and conversation. The years passed, Scholastica and Benedict grew older, and one year (543), it became clear to Scholastica that the next visit would be their last. After passing the whole day together, Benedict and Scholastica sat down to dinner. Scholastica begged her brother to stay with her throughout the evening and until the next day, so they could continue their discussions of God, of love, of heaven.

Benedict was unwilling to break his famous rule, which has gone on to shape the history of monasticism, to stay a night away from his monastery. Scholastica saw that she would not be able to convince him to stay. So she placed her head upon his hands, which were folded at the table, and implored God to move his heart that she might spend more time with her beloved brother. Suddenly, a great storm arose with violent lightning and thunder, and Benedict could not leave. "What have you done, sister?!" he exclaimed. "I asked you a favor, and you refused it," she said. "I asked it of God, and God has granted it. Go off, now, leave me and return to your monastery, if you can."

They spent the night talking, and Benedict returned to his monastery the next morning. Three days later Scholastica died. Scholastica's biographer, St. Gregory the Great, Benedictine monk and later Pope, recorded this story in his Life of Benedict and noted of Scholastica's prayer: "she who had the greater love had the greater power." Benedict had a vision that Scholastica had died, and he retrieved her body and buried it in a tomb that he prepared himself.

Scholastica is a patron saint of religious sisters and of those seeking protection against violent storms. St. Scholastica, twin sister to St. Benedict and patron saint of Benedictine sisters—pray for us!

THE SEASON OF LENT BEGINS WITH ASH WEDNESDAY ON FEBRUARY 18TH!

The holy Season of Lent begins with the distribution of ashes on Wednesday, February 18th. We have three Masses on Ash Wednesday at 8:15 AM, 12 PM, and 7 PM. Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.

ENCOUNTER SCHOOL OF MINISTRY PARISH MISSION COMING SOON

Are you looking for healing and a spiritual boost during this Lenten season? Do you want to see the Holy Spirit bring life and renewal to our church? Join us for a three-night parish mission beginning at 6:30 PM in church on Sunday, March 1st; Monday, March 2nd; and Tuesday, March 3rd hosted by the Encounter School of Ministry Akron Campus. Encounter School is a Catholic apostolate with the mission of teaching, equipping and activating disciples of Jesus to demonstrate the love of God in our world. Fully endorsed by Bishop Malesic and the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland, Encounter School has 38 campuses around the United States with our own campus in Akron. See more about encounter by visiting their website at <https://encounterschool.org/akron/>. You are not going to want to miss these three awesome evenings filled with the Holy Spirit and God's gracious love! This is not just for Catholics; invite your non-Catholic friends or spiritual seekers or anyone who is looking to grow in relationship with Jesus. See the full-page Announcement in our bulletin this weekend for all the details.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES ANNUAL APPEAL COMING NEXT WEEK!

Next weekend, parishes throughout our diocese will be conducting the 2026 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal. I am excited to tell you that last year we exceeded our goal of $97,668 and raised over $101,000 dollars! Each year, I give online because it is fast and easy using the following link: <https://www.catholiccommunity.org/give/catholic-charities/catholic-charities-appeal>. Many parishioners received letters in January, inviting their support of the Appeal. Please pray for the good work of Catholic Charities and make a pledge today. Your donation makes a difference!

Your support of the 2026 Catholic Charities Appeal will help us serve those individuals who are most in need and most vulnerable. From Matthew's Gospel: "Whatever you did for the least of these, you did it for me." When we feed the hungry, take care of the sick, and welcome the stranger, we are also serving Jesus Himself.

We appreciate your donation and will take special care to use it wisely in providing essential programs and services to people in need throughout all eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland. Stop by the Welcome Desk after Mass to pick up information on ways to contribute to the Appeal.

FR. SUSO AWAY FROM THE PARISH ON VACATION

With the Season of Lent quickly approaching and Easter right around the corner, I decided to take a few days off to recharge my body and soul. I will be away from the parish from Monday, February 2nd through Thursday, February 12th spending time with my brother, parents and friends. Always remember to take time for yourself, those you love and God, because we can't give what we don't have.

Never forget, the Lord is with us, always!

Father Anthony J. Suso
