LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

REMEMBER & RENEW: OUR FUTURE TOGETHER CAMPAIGN!

I am pleased to announce that we recently started our Remember & Renew: Our Future Together capital campaign here at St. Columbkille Parish. Over the coming months, we will embark on an important journey together through the Remember & Renew campaign. During this time, you will learn more about the goals of the campaign, the projects it will support, and the vital role it will play in strengthening our parish for future generations. There are three areas of focus that the Remember & Renew campaign will raise funds for: church (worship God), campus/ administration (serve others), and school (form disciples).

Through this campaign St. Columbkille Parish will also participate in the Diocese of Cleveland diocesan-wide Called to Flourish campaign. Every parishioner and school family will have an opportunity to participate in a meaningful way. When volunteers reach out, I encourage you to welcome their invitation, as they are serving on my behalf to share this important message. I ask that you prayerfully open your hearts and minds to the Remember & Renew campaign and consider how you can help advance this vision. Beginning this weekend, we will introduce a special campaign prayer that we will recite throughout the campaign, and we will also include a campaign intention in the Prayers of the Faithful as we seek God's guidance and blessings on this effort. I would like to thank our campaign co-chairs who are collaborating with me to lead this awesome campaign: Greg and Melissa Babcock; Mike and Rosanna Barth; Marcia Hart; Denise Lesniak and Erast Haftkowycz; Tony and Melissa Martinka; Rob and Maria Snyder; and Lyman Sornberger. If you have any questions about the campaign, I encourage you to connect with them.

ST. BERNARD, PRAY FOR US!

This Thursday, August 20th, the church celebrates the Feast Day of an abbot and doctor of the church – St. Bernard of Clairvaux. Bernard was born into a high-nobility family in Fontaines, France. He was the third of seven children, with five brothers and one sister. As a member of a wealthy family with high social status, Bernard likely received a comprehensive education. His devout parents instilled in him a deep faith. At a young age, he was sent to be educated by the canons of the Church of Saint-Vorles at Châtillon-sur-Seine, located about eighty miles north of his hometown. There, he studied grammar, poetry, literature, rhetoric, dialectics, Scripture, and theology. He excelled in the study of Scripture, personalizing it through prayer. He also held a profound devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, continually seeking her intercession.

When Bernard was around nineteen years old, his mother passed away. This event profoundly affected him and his entire family. He had already begun contemplating religious life, and his mother's loss might have sparked a deeper resolve to abandon worldly pursuits and live solely for God. Back in Fontaines with his family, Bernard began to reveal his intention to enter the newly formed Cistercian monastery in Cîteaux, known as the Abbey of Notre Dame. Initially, he encountered resistance, as he would be relinquishing everything his noble family could provide. However, he remained resolute and eventually gained their support. In fact, his virtue, clarity of purpose, and evident holiness inspired thirty other young noblemen to join him, including all of his brothers except the youngest, who would join him later, as would his father. His sister would become a Benedictine nun.

In 1113, Bernard and his brothers said good-bye to their father, younger brother, and sister, and accompanied by the rest of their noble companions, they journeyed thirty miles north to the Abbey of Notre Dame in Cîteaux. Upon their arrival, they prostrated themselves before the front gate, humbly begging Abbot Stephen Harding for admission, which he joyfully granted. Abbot Stephen appointed Bernard as the founding abbot of a new monastery in Clairvaux—a role he would fill for the next thirty-eight years.

During his time in Clairvaux, Abbot Bernard earned high respect for his holiness and leadership in monastic reform. He was a prolific writer, leaving behind roughly 530 letters and 300 sermons. Among his most influential sermons is a series of eighty-six sermons on the Song of Songs. These sermons were preached to his monks over several years and exemplify the nature of his spirituality. They delve deeply into contemplation, centering on divine love, the soul's longing for God, the experience of spiritual union, and the transformative power of God's grace. Additionally, he wrote more than twenty longer works of a theological and contemplative nature. Notably, his treatise "On Loving God" passionately and rationally articulates the reasons we should love God to an immeasurable degree. In all of his works, Abbot Bernard sought to teach not only the mind but also to draw the heart to conversion and love. He regularly emphasized the personal nature of God as revealed in Jesus Christ, our call to mystical union with Him, the need for humility, the benefits of asceticism, and the central role that the Blessed Virgin Mary must play in our lives. He was a theologian, contemplative, and mystic whose central goals were to love God and to draw others into that same love.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

In addition to his roles as abbot and writer, Bernard was frequently called upon by the wider Church, requiring much travel. Many miracles were attributed to him. He healed the sick, cast out demons, multiplied food, calmed storms, and raised the dead. He had the charism of spiritual discernment and was able to read the inner thoughts and intentions of people. His influence was strong during his time on earth, and his voluminous writings continue to profoundly impact monastic life and all who seek to know and love God and our Blessed Mother more deeply, whom he especially saw as our Mediatrix and as the Star of the Sea who guides us through the darkness of life. By the time Abbot Bernard died, his monastery in Clairvaux numbered about 700 monks, and he had founded at least sixty-eight monasteries. He has since been given the title “Doctor of the Church,” meaning that his words were like honey—convincing, forthcoming, elegant, sweet, and effective. When he spoke, everyone listened and responded.

As we honor this great saint, reformer, theologian, mystic, unifier, and Doctor of the Church, ponder the effect that one man can have when his love of God reaches an immeasurable degree. His profound union with Christ and his burning desire to draw people to God should inspire us to exponentially increase our love of God, surrendering all to Him for His glory.

FR. SUSO AWAY ON VACATION

I will be away from the parish on vacation from Monday, August 17th through Thursday, August 27th. Every year, a group of priests including Fr. Sean Ralph and Fr. Kevin Estabrook who served as vicars at St. Columbkille, travel to a cabin on Little Hawk Lake in northern Ontario Canada. We pray together, celebrate Mass, swim, eat, play games and relax. Please keep me in your prayers...know that I will be praying for you! I leave Fr. Eli in charge of the pastoral responsibilities until my return.

Never forget, the Lord Jesus is with us, always!

PARISH NEWS

The word "trigger" has become popularized in modern culture and is often misused. A trigger is, clinically speaking, a historical emotion. Our nervous system gets blueprinted in us when stressful and overwhelming life circumstances occur. This blueprint (whose job is to detect danger in the present moment) can get activated whenever it perceives that this current event seems the same as an old one. This in turn provokes reaction rather than a thoughtful response. Today's Gospel immediately brought to my mind how easily people who have been traumatized (in big or small ways) can get triggered. A woman begging for Jesus' help for her daughter seemingly gets rejected by him. We will never know her internal workings and how that impacted her initial internal response. What we do know is that whatever took place inside, on the outside she sought objective good and truth, and propelled by love for her daughter risked being turned away again. Whatever her "blueprint," she moved toward the truth because her faith was bigger than her fear. Perhaps she took a breath, or maybe she thought of her daughter's affliction and knew Jesus was her only hope. Whatever the case there is something we can learn from this woman. Feelings, including those originating from triggers, are a data source; they are not directives. We should always acknowledge our feelings. But our faith, informed by reason, should be what directs our decisions.

GOOD SAMARITAN

The Good Samaritans are very thankful for your support of our Ministry. Because of your kindness, the shelves of our food pantry are well stocked, including an abundance of pasta and canned fruits & vegetables.

For those who want to donate to the pantry, the items needed for August and September include: INSTANT MASHED POTATOES, JELLY, SYRUP, PUDDING CUPS, TOOTHPASTE, DISH SOAP, PUMP HAND SOAP.

Because there are five Sundays in August, there is an extra envelope in your packet; it's the one for the Good Samaritan Ministry. Monetary gifts allow us to help folks who call for financial assistance. Interested in our ministry? Call the rectory - we welcome new members!

WARM UP AMERICA

There will be no meeting in July. Our next meeting will be August 17th at 1 PM in the Rectory Basement. All are welcome! Thank you to those angels who continually support us! Questions? Call Lois at 216-524-6735.

FINDING THE TREASURE CALLED MARY

Please join the Finding the Treasure Called Mary Apostolate here at Saint Columbkille for a special Eucharistic Procession on Wednesday, August 26, from 7 - 8 PM. We will begin in the church with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and then process around the parish grounds in a manner inspired by the candlelight processions of Fátima, Portugal, led by a large illuminated cross and followed by the Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady of Fátima. Participants are invited to carry candles as we pray the Holy Rosary and sing Marian hymns.

Father Elizer Mondragon has graciously agreed to participate, and we will return to the church to conclude our Eucharistic Holy Hour with prayer and Benediction. In the event of heavy rain, the procession will take place inside the church. All are welcome! Questions may be directed to Linda Lagunzad at 216-544-3699 by phone or text.

The next gathering of the St. Columbkille 50+ Seniors Club will be this coming Wednesday, August 19th. Join us for our annual picnic from 11:00 AM to 2:30 PM. It will take place in our regular meeting room in the Seven Hills City Hall. This will avoid outdoor bug annoyance!! New members are always welcome.

Calling All PreKindergartners

If you or someone you know has a Little Knight between the ages of 4.5 & 5, there are still spots available in our Pre-K class for the 2026/2027 school year! We offer both half-day and full-day options for this program.

At Saint Columbkille School, we believe in working together to make your child the best version of themselves in order for them to be excited and engaged lifelong learners! Please contact our principal, Mrs. Kelley, at mkelley@stcolumbkilleschool.org with questions about applying, or to schedule a tour!
