LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

CHILDREN NEEDED FOR THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION PROCESSION!

Saturday, August 15th is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, we still want to honor our Blessed Mother in a special way at the 4 PM Vigil Mass. The Finding the Treasure Called Mary Apostolate is seeking children and grandchildren of parishioners to participate in a special Marian procession at the beginning of the 4 PM Mass at Saint Columbkille on Saturday, August 15th, in celebration of the Feast of the Assumption. The children will process into the church with a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, while carrying a large rosary, flowers, and Marian banners displaying the letters AVE MARIA. Please have participating children meet in the church vestibule at 3:30 PM on August 15th for instructions and preparation. Questions? Please contact Linda Lagunzad at (216) 544-3699 by phone or text.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS SUPERVISOR NEEDED!

Patrick Grau, our current facilities director, has retired after nine years of service to our parish and we need a new maintenance supervisor for our campus. The Director of Maintenance and Grounds is a working managerial position designed to maintain both the church and school buildings and grounds in top condition to ensure full and productive use of facilities. To accomplish these tasks, the Buildings and Grounds Supervisor must work closely with the Business Manager, Finance Director and the Principal of the School and other staff as needed. Please see the job description at the Welcome Desk and if you are interested, please call or email Fr. Suso or Jim Presot at the church office.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY, PRAY FOR US!

The Saint whom the Church celebrates on Tuesday, August 4th, is one whose popularity was so immense that the railway company had to open a special booking office in the nearby city of Lyons, to accommodate the massive influx of pilgrims into the tiny village of Ars, France. The man that all these people were flocking to see was St. Jean Marie Baptiste Vianney.

Vianney was born in 1786, as the fourth of six children to Catholic parents. His family worked the land as farmers, and despite their meager means, they would never turn away anyone who came to their doorstep seeking assistance. Jean Vianney's mother took great care to pass the faith on to her children, and the future Saint took readily to learning the things of God, even from a young age. While he was out tending the animals at pasture, he would often pray with a statue of the Blessed Mother that he kept on his person. Among his other pious practices was the custom of making the sign of the cross whenever he heard the clock strike on the hour.

The early days of this Saint's life were marked by the dark times that were occurring around him. In 1790, the revolutionary government of France passed the Civil Constitution of the Clergy, which attempted a state reorganization of the Catholic Church in France, limiting the Pope's jurisdiction, and allowing well-to-do citizens to elect priests and bishops, as well as other invasive reforms. French clergy were compelled to swear an oath to accept this constitution. This led to resistance (more than a few went to the guillotine) and forced priests to go into hiding in order to minister to the faithful remnant. The darkest days came to an end when Napoleon rose to power, and the Church gradually gained greater freedom.

It was during his youth that Jean Vianney felt a great desire to win souls for God and decided that he was going to become a priest. Initially his father was against the idea, needing him on the farm. However, after two years he relented, and Vianney began his studies for the priesthood. Because of his poor memory, he struggled mightily with his schooling, but after some twists and turns, he was eventually ordained a priest in 1815. In 1818, Vianney was sent to the tiny village of Ars, where he would spend the next forty years of his life. Upon his arrival, he found the spiritual state of the parish deplorable and set about rekindling the flame of faith in the hearts of his people. He prayed for them, fasted and did penance for them, and set out to visit each household in his parish.

One of the consequences of the revolution was a widespread religious ignorance, which Jean Vianney set about remedying through his preaching and catechism classes. Ars was also the home to numerous vices, including excessive drunkenness and immodest dancing. But through his preaching, every tavern in the city eventually had to close due to lack of patrons, and he would often pay the musicians to stay away, so that the dances could not take place. The Saint would spend in excess of ten hours a day in the confessional, and God even granted to him the gift of reading souls. For thirty-five of his years as the curé of Ars, he was routinely assaulted by the devil – terrifying and horrible sounds in an attempt to frighten him, dragging him from his bed during the night, and even setting his bed on fire one evening while he was in it. Jean Vianney used to remark when he observed these things, that he knew a "big fish" was coming (meaning someone who was dead in sin was going to come to him and be forgiven). Until his death in 1859, he worked tirelessly to win souls for God. His reputation for holiness spread so far and wide, that beginning in 1827, the irresistible attraction that Saints exert, moved thousands upon thousands of pilgrims to travel to Ars and wait in line for days to go to Confession to him.

I had the honor of visiting the tomb of St. John Vianney in Ars, France back in 2019 with my priest classmates on the 10-year anniversary of our ordination to the priesthood. Please pray for all our priests, especially me and Fr. Eli! Become a Saint, there is nothing else.

Never forget, the Lord Jesus is with us, always!

PARISH NEWS

SACRED HEART COUNSELING

As I was praying with the readings for this Sunday, I felt an overwhelming sense of peace and gratitude for the ways in which the Lord cares for me as His beloved daughter. Specifically, this line from the responsorial Psalm stood out to me, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, He answers all our needs." I used this verse to replace some of the thoughts that I experience when I encounter a challenge or difficulty in the day-to-day moments of life. Even though I spend time praying with Scripture regularly, these sacred words aren't always at the forefront of my mind. Rather than allowing myself to be filled with thoughts of hope and trust in challenging moments, I sometimes find myself giving into thoughts of overwhelm and despair. I wonder if the same is true for you?

I have found that it can be helpful to be prepared for these moments with a familiar Scripture passage. This allows me to quickly arm myself with the Lord's words of comfort and truth. In counseling, I often invite clients to write a meaningful Scripture verse on a notecard and place it somewhere visible until it becomes committed to memory. I encourage you to do the same with one of the lines we hear today or another one of your favorite verses from Scripture. You can allow the words to wash over you and become your guiding light whenever you need it most. In solidarity, I will be placing the words from Psalm 145 above my kitchen sink, where I know I will see them often!
