LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

REMEMBER & RENEW: OUR FUTURE TOGETHER CAMPAIGN!

I am pleased to announce that we recently started our Remember & Renew: Our Future Together capital campaign here at St. Columbkille Parish. Over the coming months, we will embark on an important journey together through the Remember & Renew campaign. During this time, you will learn more about the goals of the campaign, the projects it will support, and the vital role it will play in strengthening our parish for future generations. There are three areas of focus that the Remember & Renew campaign will raise funds for: church (Worship God), campus/administration (Serve Others), and school (Form Disciples).

Through this campaign, St. Columbkille Parish will also participate in the Diocese of Cleveland diocesan-wide Called to Flourish campaign. Every parishioner and school family will have an opportunity to participate in a meaningful way. When volunteers reach out, I encourage you to welcome their invitation, as they are serving on my behalf to share this important message. I ask that you prayerfully open your hearts and minds to the Remember & Renew campaign and consider how you can help advance this vision. Beginning next weekend, we will introduce a special campaign prayer that we will recite throughout the campaign, and we will also include a campaign intention in the Prayers of the Faithful as we seek God's guidance and blessings on this effort. I would like to introduce and thank our campaign co-chairs who are collaborating with me to lead this awesome campaign: Greg and Melissa Babcock; Mike and Rosanna Barth; Marcia Hart; Denise Lesniak and Erast Haftkowycz; Tony and Melissa Martinka; Rob and Maria Snyder; and Lyman Sornberger. If you have any questions about the campaign, I encourage you to connect with them.

CHILDREN NEEDED FOR THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION PROCESSION!

Saturday, August 15th, is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, we still want to honor our Blessed Mother in a special way at the 4 PM Vigil Mass. The Finding the Treasure Called Mary apostolate is seeking children and grandchildren of parishioners to participate in a special Marian procession at the beginning of the 4:00 PM Mass at Saint Columbkille on Saturday, August 15th, in celebration of the Feast of the Assumption. The children will process into the church with a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, while carrying a large rosary, flowers, and Marian banners displaying the letters AVE MARIA. Please have participating children meet in the church vestibule at 3:30 PM on August 15th for instructions and preparation. Questions? Please contact Linda Lagunzad at (216) 544-3699 by phone or text.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS SUPERVISOR NEEDED!

Patrick Grau, our current facilities director, has retired after nine years of service to our parish and we need a new maintenance supervisor for our campus. The Director of Maintenance and Grounds is a working managerial position designed to maintain both the church and school buildings and grounds in top condition to ensure full and productive use of facilities. To accomplish these tasks, the Buildings and Grounds Supervisor must work closely with the Business Manager, Finance Director and the Principal of the School and other staff as needed. Please see the job description at the Welcome Desk and if you are interested, please call or email Fr. Suso or Jim Presot at the church office.

ST. LAWRENCE PRAY FOR US!

This Monday, August 10th, we celebrate the Feast Day of St. Lawrence. Though not much is known for certain about St. Lawrence, he has been highly revered as a martyr and deacon from at least the fourth century. In Rome, Lawrence was ordained one of the city's seven deacons—most likely as the head of the seven deacons, the Archdeacon of Rome. As archdeacon in the 3rd century, Lawrence was put in charge of the Church's material possessions and was responsible for distributing alms to the poor. By the time Pope Sixtus II was elected pope in 257, he and Deacon Lawrence are believed to have had a strong friendship. In 253, Valerian became the Roman Emperor. At first, he tolerated Christians. However, in 257 he issued an edict that began a fierce persecution of the Church.

Saint Cyril, then the bishop of Carthage, North Africa, who also died a martyr under Valerian, described the persecution this way: "The Emperor Valerian has consigned to the Senate a decree by which he has determined that all Bishops, Priests and Deacons will be immediately put to death. I communicate to you that Sixtus suffered martyrdom on 6 August 257 together with four Deacons while they were in a cemetery. The Roman authorities have established a norm according to which all Christians who have been denounced must be executed and their goods confiscated by the Imperial treasury."

After Pope Sixtus and the other deacons were martyred, Deacon Lawrence was arrested. Because he was in charge of the riches of the Church, the prefect of Rome demanded that Deacon Lawrence hand over to him all the treasures of the Church. Lawrence requested three days to gather them, during which time he distributed all he could to the poor. After three days, Deacon Lawrence appeared again before the prefect and pointed to the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the suffering of Rome, saying, "These are the treasures of the Church." This infuriated the prefect who had anticipated receiving gold and silver. He ordered that Deacon Lawrence be burned on a gridiron. Saint Ambrose records Deacon Lawrence's last act of heroic virtue and defiance of diabolical oppression this way: "However, after three days he was placed upon the gridiron by the tyrant whom he mocked, and was burnt. He said: 'The flesh is roasted, turn it and eat.' So by the courage of his mind he overcame the power of fire."

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

What is known for certain is that Saint Lawrence of Rome gave his life for Christ. After that heroic act of selflessness, God raised Saint Lawrence back to life—not physically, but spiritually, making him an icon of Christ to inspire others. Because Saint Lawrence is believed to have been burned on a gridiron, he has become known as the patron saint of cooks and tanners. And because of the humor Lawrence displayed while dying, as recorded by Saint Ambrose, he is the patron saint of comedians. From the third century onward, Saint Lawrence has been highly venerated in Rome and is considered a patron of Rome, after Saints Peter and Paul. After Constantine the Great legalized Christianity in the fourth century, tradition holds that he built a basilica over the tomb of Saint Lawrence that became one of the seven main churches in Rome.

As we honor this legend of heroic virtue within the Roman Church, ponder not only his courage but also the way that God has used him to inspire many throughout the centuries. Though acts of courage may be difficult at the time they are performed, the good fruit of such heroism lives on. Seek the intercession of Saint Lawrence today, asking him to pray for you so that you will have the courage to do all that God asks of you, even using humor when helpful, so that you will find joy in everything, even persecution and suffering.

Prayer: Saint Lawrence, you gave your life to Christ at a young age and followed Him to your death with courage. You executed your duties to the poor with fidelity and saw them as the true treasures of the Church. Please pray for me, that I will have the courage that you had to say "Yes" to Christ, no matter what He asks of me. Saint Lawrence of Rome, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Never forget, the Lord Jesus is with us, always!

PARISH NEWS

The word "trigger" has become popularized in modern culture and is often misused. A trigger is, clinically speaking, a historical emotion. Our nervous system gets blueprinted in us when stressful and overwhelming life circumstances occur. This blueprint (whose job is to detect danger in the present moment) can get activated whenever it perceives that this current event seems the same as an old one. This in turn provokes reaction rather than a thoughtful response. Today's Gospel immediately brought to my mind how easily people who have been traumatized (in big or small ways) can get triggered. A woman begging for Jesus' help for her daughter seemingly gets rejected by Him. We will never know her internal workings and how that impacted her initial internal response. What we do know is that whatever took place inside, on the outside she sought objective good and truth, and propelled by love for her daughter risked being turned away again. Whatever her "blueprint," she moved toward the truth because her faith was bigger than her fear. Perhaps she took a breath, or maybe she thought of her daughter's affliction and knew Jesus was her only hope. Whatever the case there is something we can learn from this woman. Feelings, including those originating from triggers, are a data source; they are not directives. We should always acknowledge our feelings. But our faith, informed by reason, should be what directs our decisions.

GOOD SAMARITAN

The Good Samaritans are very thankful for your support of our Ministry. Because of your kindness, the shelves of our food pantry are well stocked, including an abundance of pasta and canned fruits & vegetables.

For those who want to donate to the pantry, the items needed for August and September include: INSTANT MASHED POTATOES, JELLY, SYRUP, PUDDING CUPS, TOOTHPASTE, DISH SOAP, PUMP HAND SOAP.

Because there are 5 Sundays in August, there is an extra envelope in your packet (it's the one for the Good Samaritan Ministry). Monetary gifts allow us to help folks who call for financial assistance. Interested in our ministry? Call the rectory - we welcome new members!

CATCHING FIRE SPEAKER: SR. CLAIRE ON MEDJUGORJE

Sister Claire Marie Lampe is a member of the Marian Community "Oasis of Peace," living in Medjugorje, Bosnia Herzegovina. Born in Gent, Belgium in 1955, she lived her early years in Africa, Democratic Republic of Zaire, then studied in Belgium where in 1979 she got her Licentiate in Romanic Languages from The State University of Gent, Belgium. She worked for several years as a French teacher in the Netherlands, Belgium and the United States. While living in the States, she graduated in 1988 as an M.A. in Theology from the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio. Her first visit in Medjugorje during Holy week in 1986 changed the course of her life. Our Lady Queen of Peace called her to become "the Bride of Christ."

She decided to continue her M.A. and after graduating, joined May 1988, the Marian Community "Oasis of Peace," a newly founded community by Fr. Gianni Sgreva, Passionist priest to answer the call of the Queen of Peace to "Pray, pray, pray for Peace in the world and in the church," in Italy. She made her first vows 15 August 1990 and her perpetual Vows in 1993. She has served as one of the early sisters of the community in Italy, Bosnia Herzegovina and Brasil.

Join us this Sunday, August 9th, to hear from this incredible speaker at 7 PM in the Church.
