LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

CONGRATULATIONS, 8TH GRADERS RITE OF ACCEPTANCE FOR CONFIRMATION!

This Sunday at the 10 AM Mass, all our 8th graders and families will be present as they prepare to be accepted into the order of candidates preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation in the spring. Confirmation is the final Sacrament of Initiation in the Catholic Church in which the grace of the Holy Spirit is sealed by sacred anointing with holy chrism oil by the bishop and the gifts of the Holy Spirit are poured out into the hearts of believers. Please pray for all our 8th graders and their families as they make this important step in their formation as Catholics.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI, PRAY FOR US!

This Saturday, October 4th is the feast day of arguably the most beloved and well-known saint of the Church, Francis of Assisi. The patron saint of Italy and of animals, Francis was a poor little man who astounded and inspired the Church by taking the Gospel literally—not in a narrow fundamentalist sense, but by actually following all that Jesus said and did, joyfully, without limit, and without a sense of self-importance.

Serious illness brought the young Francis to see the emptiness of his frolicking life as leader of Assisi's youth. Prayer for Francis had become lengthy and difficult, which led him to a self-emptying like that of Jesus, climaxed by embracing a leper he met on the road. This meeting with the leper symbolized his complete obedience to what he had heard in prayer: "Francis! Everything you have loved and desired in the flesh it is your duty to despise and hate, if you wish to know my will. And when you have begun this, all that now seems sweet and lovely to you will become intolerable and bitter, but all that you used to avoid will turn itself to great sweetness and exceeding joy." Francis' father, a wealthy merchant disapproved of his foolish son's faith to the point where Francis stood in the town square of Assisi and removed all his fancy clothing, wearing instead the garments of a beggar.

From the cross in the neglected field-chapel of San Damiano, Jesus told him, "Francis, go out and build up my house, for it is nearly falling down." Francis became the totally poor and humble workman. Francis must have suspected a deeper meaning to "build up my house." But he would have been content to be for the rest of his life the poor "nothing" man, choosing to literally rebuild brick on brick the abandoned chapel of San Damiano. He gave up all his possessions, piling even his clothes before his earthly father—who was demanding restitution for Francis' "gifts" to the poor—so that he would be totally free to say, "Our Father in heaven." He was, for a time, considered to be a religious fanatic, begging from door to door when he could not get money for his work, evoking sadness or disgust to the hearts of his former friends, ridicule from the unthinking.

But the genuineness of Francis' faith endured. A few people began to realize that this man was actually trying to be an authentic disciple of Jesus. He really believed what Jesus said: "Announce the kingdom! Possess no gold or silver or copper in your purses, no traveling bag, no sandals, no staff" (Luke 9:1-3).

Francis' first rule for his followers was a collection of texts from the Gospels. He had no intention of founding a religious order, but once it began he protected it and accepted all the legal structures needed to support it. His devotion and loyalty to the Church were absolute and highly exemplary at a time when various movements of reform tended to break the Church's unity.

Francis was torn between a life devoted entirely to prayer and a life of active preaching of the Good News. He decided in favor of the latter, but always returned to solitude when he could. Deep down, Francis wanted to be a missionary in Syria or in Africa, but was prevented by shipwreck and illness in both cases. He did try to convert the sultan of Egypt during the Fifth Crusade.

During the last years of his relatively short life, Francis had become nearly blind and seriously ill and he died on October 3rd, 1226 at the young age of 44. Two years before his death, he received the stigmata, the real and painful wounds of Christ in his hands, feet and side. On his deathbed, Francis said over and over again the last addition to his Cantic of the Sun, "Be praised, O Lord, for our Sister Death." He sang Psalm 141, and at the end asked his superior's permission to have his clothes removed when the last hour came in order that he could expire lying naked on the earth, in imitation of his Lord.

He recognized creation as another manifestation of the beauty of God. In 1979, he was named by the Church as patron of ecology and the patron saint of animals. Francis heard the call of Jesus to rebuild the Church, not bricks and mortar but the souls of people longing for communion with our Lord.

Special thanks to Anna Bischof and Sue Bewly for leading this project! Two collection boxes are located at the entrances in the vestibule of the church. For cash donations, checks should be made out to the Cleveland Diocesan Union H.N.S.
