NOTICES

MASS ON MONDAY MORNING, 9th NOVEMBER: St. Mary's Primary School. The Mass will be offered for all the past staff and pupils of the school who have died. Parishioners may attend the Mass. Please gather outside the main door of Largs Academy between 8.55am and 9.05am. A member of staff will take you to the assembly hall.

THERE WILL BE NO MASS ON THURSDAY MORNING either in St. Mary's or in Our Lady's, Millport, as I must attend a clergy meeting out of town. I will offer Mass at that meeting for those named on our November Lists. Please remember that there is always Mass at 12 Noon in the Benedictine Monastery.

LITURGY THIS WEEK: As well as praying continually for the faithful departed with special Masses on Monday and Friday, the liturgical calendar this week provides us with two notable saints from the 4th-5th centuries: St. Leo the Great (Tuesday), who was a giant and lion of a man as pastor and defender of the unity of the Church (he even persuaded Attila the Hun not to march on Rome in 452!); and St. Martin of Tours (Wednesday), who was a soldier, hermit, abbot, priest and exemplary bishop. It is good to get to know these men and women whom God has put before us as examples of holiness. Their intercession is of great avail to us on our pilgrim way.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS: Next meeting this coming Tuesday, 10th November, from 7-8pm in St. Mary's Parish Hall. Everyone is welcome. This week, we begin volume 2 in the our reading program whose title is "My Catholic Worship." The first chapter we will discuss on Tuesday is "The Greatest Act on Earth." Here are the sub-headings: The Great Mysterium Fidei - Liturgy 101 - Is the Liturgy Boring? - Who Celebrates the Liturgy? - How the Liturgy is Celebrated - When Do We Celebrate? - Where Do We Celebrate? - Diversity vs. Unity.

ANOINTING OF RCIA CANDIDATES: Since our candidates have now completed volume 1 of their program, entitled "My Catholic Faith", I will anoint them at Masses next weekend, 14th & 15th November, as a way of signifying and promoting their growth in spiritual strength in the Holy Spirit. They are not being anointed with the oil of the sick! Rather, it is a way of bringing them and their courageous efforts to the attention of the parish community so that we can continue to support them with our prayers, our presence and our friendship. Please make a point of encouraging and welcoming them personally!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION IN OUR DIOCESE: Copies of the first leaflet, which adapts the programme for personal use, are at the back of the church. Please take one home and do what you can to join spiritually with the rest of the Diocese to prepare for the Great Jubilee of 2033 under the Bishop's inspired guidance. I will produce the second leaflet for Sunday 29th November, the First of Advent.

THE ANNUAL EDUCATION MASS will be celebrated by Bishop Frank, in Saint John's, Stevenston on Wednesday, 25th November at 6pm.
