Dear faithful pastors and churches,

June 2025

Thank you for supporting me and Diane so faithfully in the mission work God has called us to. It is churches like yours that make a difference in the Great Commission at home and around the world. We trust the Lord for His strength, His blessings and His power.

About 6 years ago, I made a 2 week trip to Kenya, Africa. That changed my life. I taught 90 Independent Baptist Kenyan preachers all day for 5 days on the Book of Romans and then did evangelism in high schools, elementary schools, grocery stores, other established churches, and streets in villages and in the city.

We have worked hard, sought God's wisdom and seen more fruit in the number of new converts, converts being taught and new churches established (8 more in the past 6-8 months). Another thing, 90% of this work is done by the well-trained Independent Baptist Kenyan pastors and churches themselves, such as Pastor Seabury Nyabero (indigenous principle!!!) that we team with. God also provided a long term missionary to be in Kenya many weeks a year to assist, report, and give credibility to this great ministry. Brother T.J. Tilley has been at the heart of this ministry for longer than I.

I have recently been blessed by the following verse: Psalm 92:14, "They shall still bring forth fruit in old age..." AMEN!

I am presently preparing a video course to teach, entitled "Intro to Missions," to develop a mission-minded church and to prepare a family to leave for the mission field. Every church member ought to be involved in world evangelism, and can be. We are assisting a group to Kenya in July 2025.

My health has required me to cut back on meetings, at least for now, which I miss. I remain busy in world evangelism, still writing and providing literature for the 9 million souls we are seeking to reach and teach in Kenya, Africa. I am constantly amazed how faithful God has been in meeting our needs. God is doing great things through His people, His church, and the pastors who have a burden for this ministry of soul winning, teaching and planting churches. I am leading a class this summer that I have entitled Introduction to World Evangelism.

THANK YOU AGAIN FOR OBEYING GOD AND HELPING TO SUPPORT THIS WORTHWHILE GOSPEL MINISTRY!

Yours in Christ,

Roger Baker
