Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all! Looking back over the past year, God has surely blessed us in more ways than we can begin to tell. We are grateful for the Lord meeting our every need and just giving us the strength to serve day after day. Christmas is a reminder to us of His love in giving His Son the Lord Jesus Christ.

As mentioned in the last prayer letter, we did go forward with a Christmas play. We used the few volunteers that we had, and God blessed our efforts. Working together as a church, I believe drew us closer to those that participated. We did not have a huge turnout from the town, but it was fun just trying something different to encourage the church and those that came. One of the families came back the following Sunday morning. Please pray for these visitors that God would use the seed that was sown.

Our weather hasn't been too bad thus far. It is an old saying around here that you will get moisture 30 days from the time that you have fog. We had a lot of fog this past fall, so it has made for a lot of talk in town. I will say, God is ultimately in control of all things and sometimes He allows man to read the signs of changing weather, but we have had moisture within a day or two of the 30-day window. Based on the fog, we are in for a wet winter. We shall see.

The church is about the same with little fruit to be seen. The one family that we have been requesting prayer for has decided to attend elsewhere and stated they are probably not returning anytime soon. We are saddened to see them go. The kids were well behaved, listened and seemed to enjoy Sunday school with the other kids. I am still in contact with the husband as he still volunteers to move the snow off our church parking lot. Please pray for them, there isn't much for church choices without driving great distances in our area.

As we start a new year, we look forward to what God has in store for us and the opportunity to continue to serve Him. We appreciate your faithfulness in prayers and support. Thank you for the extra gifts and cards for Christmas. May the Lord richly bless you.
