A Loving Community, Serving God's Kingdom

Vision for Renewal: Embracing a New Year at St. Francis

“Where there is no vision, the people perish.” These timeless words from Proverbs 29:18 remind us that purpose and direction are essential for a flourishing community and spiritual life. So, here we are with our annual meeting behind us, and at the threshold of a brand-new year, we are invited to reflect, renew, and recommit ourselves to the vision God has placed before St. Francis Episcopal Church.

The start of a new year naturally sparks hope and the desire for renewal. It's a season to let go of what weighs us down and make space for God's possibilities. At St. Francis, this means returning to the heart of our Mission, Vision, and Core Values—allowing these guiding principles to shape our decisions, our relationships, and our service. When we align ourselves with these values, we become a community that reflects Christ's love and light in all we do.

In the midst of our spiritual renewal and recommitment, we also continue our dedicated search for a new rector to lead St. Francis into this promising future. This journey requires patience, prayer, and active discernment from our entire community, trusting that God is preparing a faithful shepherd who will walk with us, nurture our growth, and help us embody our mission in fresh and meaningful ways.

But how do we share this vision beyond our church walls? For many of us, the word “evangelism” can feel intimidating—perhaps conjuring images of heated debates or uncomfortable encounters. I'd like to offer “quiet evangelism.”

This gentle approach means sharing our faith through casual, everyday conversations, reflecting Christ naturally as we go about our lives. It's not about having all the answers or persuading others with eloquent speech; it's about listening, sharing stories, and letting God work through authentic relationships.

If you've ever feared that evangelism is out of your comfort zone, know that you are not alone. Most of us worry about saying the wrong thing or being misunderstood. But quiet evangelism is simply an invitation to let your faith shine in ordinary moments—at work, in the checkout line, or over coffee with a friend. The Holy Spirit empowers us, even in our smallest actions.

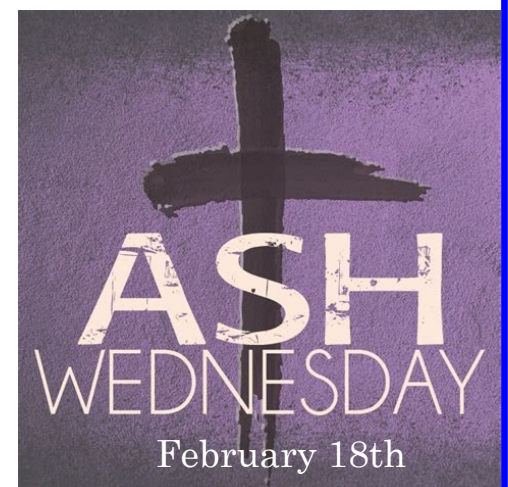

To make this even easier, consider carrying St. Francis business cards with you—cards with our worship times and website. Hand one to a neighbor, a coworker, or even a stranger who might be searching for community or meaning. A simple invitation—“Would you like to join me at church this Sunday?”—can plant seeds of hope. This year let's challenge ourselves to invite not only friends and family, but also those we do not yet know.

As we embark on this new chapter together, let's trust in God's vision for St. Francis. Let our Mission, Vision and Core Values continue to guide us. May our quiet acts of faith speak volumes, and may we boldly invite others to discover the love and belonging we have found here. The Holy Spirit will do the rest—one conversation, one invitation, one renewed heart at a time.

Prayer for a New Rector

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: Look graciously on your Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a rector for this parish, that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
