Thursday 4th September

Climate Change and Just Peace with Martha Inés Romero

Martha Inés will share on the Indigenous Eco-Spirituality of the Latin America and Caribbean region and the way they heal Creation.

She will also address Pax Christi International's main messages related to Active Nonviolence, and the relation between Rearming and Biodiversity and Ecological Justice.

Thursday 11th September

The Reality of Climate Change with Blessings Kachale.

Blessings is from Malawi, but lives now in Edinburgh, and works on SCIAF's climate adaptation project in Rwanda that supports Rwandan communities to confront the severe challenges posed by the climate crisis..

As well as hearing about the project in Rwanda Blessings will also share her own experience of the reality of climate change and that of her family and community.

Thursday 18th September

Laudato Si' Schools - Seeds of Hope with Anne-Marie Clements

As a response to Pope Francis' call to Ecological Action the Scottish Catholic Education Service (SCES), Justice and Peace Scotland and SCIAF created the Laudato Si' Schools Scotland programme.

Hear about the tremendous work that is being done by our young people in our Laudato Si' Schools all across Scotland.

Thursday 25th September

Eco-Congregations ~ Communities of Hope with:

David Coleman - Eco-Congregation Scotland Chaplain

Margret MacPhail - St Ninian's, Dundee - Dunkeld Diocese

Eileen McQuade - St Ninian and St Cuthbert's, Hamilton - Motherwell Diocese

Across Scotland there are many flourishing Eco-Congregations and Margret and Eileen will share their journey as a starter for discussing how your parish may get involved.

David will also share ways in which he can support you in your journey.
