

Gary Keesee is an author, international speaker, entrepreneur, financial expert, and pastor with a deep passion for helping people win in life—especially in the areas of faith, family, and finances.

What sets Gary apart is his practical, life-changing teaching on the Kingdom of God. He helps people understand that the Kingdom is not just a future promise but a present reality with spiritual laws and principles that produce measurable results. Through clear biblical insight and real-world application, Gary teaches how to operate in God’s Kingdom system by breaking cycles of financial dysfunction, overcoming fear, and walking in confidence, provision, and purpose.

Alongside his wife, Drenda, Gary has built multiple successful businesses and co-founded Faith Life Now, a global media ministry dedicated to equipping people with practical, Bible-based strategies for success. Through their television programs, Fixing the Money Thing and Drenda, international conferences, and transformational resources, they empower individuals and families to experience true freedom and lasting breakthroughs.

Gary and Drenda also co-founded and serve as senior pastors of Faith Life Church in Central Ohio, which has impacted thousands of lives and recently celebrated over 30 years of ministry.
