

Join the world's most influential treasurers at the 35th annual EuroFinance International Treasury Management from September 16th–18th, 2026.

This year's programme on the theme, Strategic Treasury in the AI Era, includes new event experiences and formats designed to help you build strategic partnerships, drive solutions through discussion, and leverage AI and automation for a true competitive edge.

What sets EuroFinance apart?

- The keynote session with Rt. Hon. Justin Trudeau, former Prime Minister of Canada: Mr. Trudeau will bring his first-hand geopolitical insight to a conversation with Daniel Franklin, executive editor, The Economist. He will chart a strategic path forward, exploring the risk scenarios that could upend global markets, supply chains and financial stability.
- The Treasury Inspiration Stage: This stage is dedicated exclusively to case studies. Discover how to turn innovative concepts into immediate, practical strategy in your treasury function.
- Treasury Exchange Roundtables: A trusted space for treasurers to share experiences with peers, exchange ideas, and overcome daily hurdles and your most complex structural challenges.
- Practitioner-led case studies: A market-leading programme only at EuroFinance; find out how leading treasurers are driving innovation, improving efficiency, and adding strategic value. Learn about real-world successes, potential pitfalls, and how to build a roadmap to inform your next project.
- Treasury Match 1:1 Meetings: Meet your personal networking concierge. No wasted time, no missed opportunities—just focused, relevant conversations arranged around your schedule.
- Unmatched thought leadership: 180+ of the brightest minds across 8 stages showcasing how they are building future-ready strategies and partnerships.
- The global treasury marketplace: We bring the market to you. Access 2,500+ attendees from 50+ countries, alongside 100+ exhibiting companies shaping what's next.
