No

Answer "Yes" if you have taken or will take over the activities of another organization, you took over 25% or more of the fair market value of the net assets of another organization, or you were established upon the conversion of an organization from for-profit to nonprofit status. If "Yes," complete Schedule G.

Part III Required Provisions in Your Organizing Document

Part III helps ensure that, when you submit this application, your organizing document contains the required provisions to meet the organizational test under section 501(c)(3).

If you cannot check "Yes" in both Lines 1 and 2, your organizing document does not meet the organizational test. DO NOT file this application until you have amended your organizing document. Remember to upload your original and amended organizing documents at the end of this form

1 Section 501(c)(3) requires that your organizing document limit your purposes to one or more exempt purposes within section 501(c)(3), such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes.

The following is an example of an acceptable purpose clause: The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Part IV Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document.

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- a. What is the activity?
- b. Who conducts the activity?
- c. Where is the activity conducted?
- d. What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- e. How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- f. How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

Healing Hearts Honduras engages in educational outreach, fundraising, and awareness campaigns to support its mission.

Our primary activities include participating in conferences, delivering talks, soliciting donations, and conducting fundraisers to support our initiatives.

These activities are carried out by the organization's leadership, volunteers, and supporters at conferences, community events, online platforms, and donor gatherings.

100 percent of the organization's time is dedicated to these activities, with a focus on advocacy, donor engagement, and fundraising efforts.

Funding comes entirely from donations, fundraising events, and sponsorships, which cover 100 percent of our expenses related to outreach, event participation, and donor engagement efforts.

These activities directly support our exempt purpose by raising awareness, generating financial support, and expanding our capacity to provide aid and services to those in need.
