NATURAL ORGANIC REDUCTION

Natural Organic Reduction, also known as terramation, utilizes the body's own naturally occurring microbes to gently transform remains into nutrient-rich soil. The process is conducted in individual vessels and takes 60-90 days to complete. The resulting soil can then be returned home to be placed in gardens, house plants, or donated to a woodland property in Kent, WA to aid in the restoration and rejuvenation of the forest.

ABOUT RETURN HOME

Return Home transforms human remains into rich, fertile soil through a service called Terramation. They help gently return our deceased to the earth so that new life may be created, just as nature intended.

PAYMENT POLICY

In order to serve all clients fairly and to prevent misunderstandings, McCormick & Son Mortuaries have established a uniform payment policy.

It is customary to pay charges at the conclusion of the arrangement conference with your director.

Payment of charges is required by the morning of the day prior to the first viewing or service. Acceptable forms of payment are: check, cash, MasterCard, Visa, or Discover, AmEx, funeral trust accounts and life insurance policies. There is a 3% merchant services processing fee when paying by Credit or Debit Card. We do accept cash or check in person.

Life insurance* policies may be accepted under the following conditions:

1. The policy is in force and assignable
2. The policy is an individual policy and not a group policy
3. That no loans have been taken out on the policy
4. The original policy is surrendered
5. That the beneficiary or beneficiaries all sign all necessary documents
6. The insurance company provides the mortuary with written assurance that they will pay the funeral home
7. The insurance company conveys assurance that there are enough funds in the insurance to pay for the contracted arrangements
8. That all of the above be accomplished three (3) working days prior to the morning before the first event: viewing, service or scheduling a cremation
9. Payment of all cash advance items are to be paid by the morning of the day prior to the first viewing or service.

Third party checks, future payments from estate funds and credit cards in the name of the decedent will not be accepted.

Should a credit balance result from adjustments to the contract a refund will be issued after the 15th of the month following the month in which services were held to allow time for processing of any billing adjustments received from outside service providers.

Payment due in full 24 hours prior to service.

*There will be a $250.00 processing fee per policy for insurance policy assignments (this does not apply to McCormick & Son Mortuaries funeral insurance plans). Policies under two years old are generally contestable and may not be accepted.

PRENEED ARRANGEMENTS

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.
