

ABOUT THE COVER

Today’s readings tell us of the God who drives back the sea and walks between two armies to protect a vulnerable people. The Lord protects and save his people. May his people believe and trust the Lord every day.

Jesus answers Peter’s question about forgiveness with a parable that touches our hearts and souls: The same servant who was forgiven an unpayable debt then goes and seizes his debtor by the throat and demands payment. The servant fails to show mercy and grant his debtor forgiveness as he was granted forgiveness. May we be willing to forgive as we have been forgiven.

Paul calls the Roman church to stop passing judgment on one another over matters of conscience because we do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. We who are in Christ are the Lord’s. Thanks be to God.
