

ABOUT THE COVER

Paul gives voice to the anguished inner struggle we all recognize, wanting to do good yet finding evil close at hand, and then breaks through to the only answer: thanking God through Jesus Christ our Lord. It is to that same weary, burdened humanity that Jesus opens his arms, promising rest to all who take his yoke, for he is gentle and humble in heart and his burden is light. Rebekah's story reminds us that God's providence works through ordinary moments of faithfulness and hospitality, guiding servants and strangers toward purposes larger than they can see. May we, devoted to God with our whole heart and united to one another with pure affection, find in Christ the rest our souls are seeking.
