And our every present Guest: THE HOLY SPIRIT!!

Message from the Chairpersons:

DeColores!

Our faith in God, His Son, and the Holy Spirit is meant to be shared….shared with our families, our friends, our neighbors, our work world, and anyone else we come in contact with during the course of our lives. Sharing the love we hold in our "heart space" is sharing our faith which is a large part of our spiritual journey. (Make a Friend, Be a Friend, Bring a Friend to Christ). We share through service to others. Volunteering at church or in our communities, feeding the poor, praying with the sick or homebound, and assisting the homeless are examples. We recognize people who need help through where we see them, how they are dressed, and when they actually ask for help. Most times a person's hurt or challenges are not physically visible. They may avoid eye contact with people or they put on their public "happy face". Then there's the people we come in contact with through living our daily lives – the doctors, nurses, store cashiers, beauticians, the plumber, etc. How do we share our faith with them? In some cases you only have a couple minutes, maybe less. Well, the best "face of God" you can offer to the general public is one with a smile on it. That smile is free but how welcoming it can be to someone having a bad day or a bad year. We never know. Addressing them or thanking them by using their name can make any interaction much more personal. If you can't read their name tag, ask for their first name. It will mean that you reached out to them with intent. If God knows the number of hairs on each of our heads, then it's not too much action for us to ask for their name and thank them for helping us.

Dress for Success: When you wear your cross or crucifix in public or another sign of faith (possibly that God-inspired T-shirt in your closet), people can easily see that you outwardly express your faith and they are more apt to express theirs. We suggest you to wear your Cursillo cross to mass and church events during Lent as a way of sharing Cursillo and yourself with others. It's a conversation starter after sharing your smile and a greeting. Outside of church, you will find that the outward sign plus your kind words and action creates a caring impression. We should consider ourselves as "God's Greeters" wherever we go and follow through with a listening heart and action.

Make a Friend, Be a Friend, Bring a Friend to Christ!
