REFLECTION
By Fr. Rich Jasper
Third Sunday of Easter
April 19, 2026

I Have No Idea...

Our Gospel this weekend – the beautiful account of two disciples encountering the Risen Lord on the road to Emmaus – brings to mind a prayer that I keep in my Bible and refer to often before I read Scripture or when I find myself struggling with my faith. It was composed by American Trappist monk Thomas Merton when he himself was wrestling with his vocation and searching for God's will in his life. I hope you, too, will clip Merton's prayer from this bulletin and place it somewhere you can refer to it when it may be needed most:

Thomas Merton's Prayer:

*My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following Your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please You does in fact please You. And I hope that I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.
And I know that if I do this, You will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it. Therefore, I trust You always, though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for You are ever with me, and will not leave me to face my perils alone. Amen.*

We extend our condolences and prayers to the families of those who have recently died:
Eternal rest Grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.
Mary C. Perez, Michael Bernero

We extend a warm welcome to our newly registered members.....Liz Callahan, Tyler Smallwood

Readings for Next Week:
Fourth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

With great authority, Peter proclaims to the people that the Christ who was crucified is indeed the Messiah. Urging them to reform and be baptized in the name of Christ, three thousand responded to his words and were baptized.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20b-25

This is a strong exhortation from Peter to the people to endure suffering for Christ as he did for them. Healed by his wounds, they have "returned to the shepherd."

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Christ uses the beautiful image of the shepherd to describe his care for his sheep. He also says he is the sheepgate and promises that "Whoever enters through me will be safe."

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

Are You Someone or Do You Know Someone Who...

- Are you interested in becoming Catholic?
- Do you have an adult child or friend who has yet to be baptized?
- Were you or a friend baptized Catholic as a child but haven't received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

Beginning in June 2026, Immaculate Conception is offering a new Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) program—a welcoming opportunity for individuals to explore the Catholic faith. These sessions will cover the core teachings and experiences of the Church and will help prepare participants for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Classes will take place every Wednesday at 7pm at the Parish Center.

We invite you to join us—bring your questions, share your experiences, and journey in faith within a supportive and friendly environment. For more details, please contact Deacon Ben Feril at iccdeaconben@gmail.com or call 443-907-8159.

Parish Pastoral Council Openings: We Need You!

The Parish Pastoral Council has a few openings to fill this year, and we invite all parishioners to prayerfully consider stepping into this leadership role. The Parish Pastoral Council works closely with the pastor as a consultative body. Its core mission is to discover and define parish needs, promote unity among our various organizations, and help shape the future of our community.

"I'm Interested" cards will be available in this bulletin and in the pews at both churches during the weekends of April 18-19 and April 25-26. Please return your completed card to the Parish Office by Monday, April 27, or email your interest directly to icsjparishcouncil@yahoo.com. The Selection Committee will personally contact everyone who submits a card or email to discuss the next steps!

We believe that by coming together weekly, uniting our hearts and voices praying together, we can bring strength and joy to each other.

We want to encounter God through prayer for ourselves and our children. Join with other mothers, grandmothers, stepmothers, Godmothers, etc., as we pray to grow in holiness and humility, and for our children's faithful return to the Catholic Church.
