REFLECTION

By Fr. Rich Jasper - October 4, 2026
Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Make Me a Channel ...

Since January 10th, the Church has been celebrating a Jubilee Year focused on the life, mission and holiness of St. Francis of Assisi, whose 800th anniversary of his entrance into Eternal Life is commemorated this very weekend (October 3 and 4). Beloved the world over, Francis has reminded us that our life's journey is meant to be one in which we put Christ first by the way we love our neighbor and care for the creation God has entrusted to us.

Here at Immaculate Conception parish, we have offered places in both of our church locations where a shrine-grotto has been created for the Jubilee year as a way to honor not just the man who lived the Gospel radically but to also recall the legacy that the Franciscan community has left our community throughout the past decades. How grateful we are to Father Arnd, the 12th pastor of Immaculate Conception, for inviting the Franciscan Sisters of Glen Riddle, Pa., to teach in our grade school, lead our religious education programs, and assist with Outreach throughout these past many decades. To this day, the Sisters of St. Francis remain a beautiful presence in our parish, and we are all the better for having their gentle and loving presence in our lives.

In a very special way leading-up to this Feast Day weekend, we honored Sister Dolores Marie Sambuco, OSF, with a plaque and small tribute at this past Saturday's Vigil Mass. Sister Dolores celebrated the 70th anniversary of her religious profession in August, and much of her vocation has been lived out right here in Elkton, teaching in our school, assisting with Outreach and helping at the Pregnancy Center. Most especially we are grateful for her gentle spirit, a spirit that is so willing to welcome all and reach out to anyone who needs a kind word or listening heart. Not a daily Mass goes by in which I haven't encountered Sister's genuine joy and compassion, and I am a better priest and Christian man because of her prayerful influence in my life. I know so many of us can say the same.

Eight hundred years ago, a humble man from Assisi, Italy, showed the world what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ in a Church that opens her doors to all who come seeking Mercy and Love. How blessed we are at Immaculate Conception/St. Jude that this mission continues in many beautiful ways, thanks in large part to the witness of our own humble and holy women and men who pray and worship in these very pews. Sister Dolores, Sister Sharon and all the Franciscan Sisters remind us that we are all called to be instruments of God's peace in Elkton and North East. May we never be afraid to take up the challenge of being Christ for others.

Saint Francis and St. Clare, pray for us.

Readings for Next Week:

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Times

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

This passage describes the new Jerusalem as a heavenly banquet on the mountain with the Lord God wiping away all tears.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

In simple, direct words, Paul thanks the Philippians for alleviating his hardships. He stresses, though, that he is as accustomed to poverty as to abundance and finds all his strength in Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

Once more speaking to the chief priests and the elders, Jesus relates the parable of the wedding banquet. A King, preparing a wedding banquet for his son, summons all the invited guests. When, after several invitations, no guests arrive, the King commands his servants to "go out into the byroads and invite anyone you come upon." Again, Jesus warns the elders, "the invited are many, the elect are few."
