REFLECTION

By Fr. Rich Jasper

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 18, 2026

Weapon of Choice ...

One of the Augustinian priests who taught me in high school has a Rosary attached to the cincture of his habit. When he taught and moved about the classroom, he held it loosely in his hand. As we took a test or read silently from a textbook, you could see him move the wooden beads through his fingers. Even though he never explicitly told us, we knew that he was praying for us constantly, and his classroom radiated a sense of peace within it that very few classrooms had in our all-boys' high school.

During this month of the Most Holy Rosary, I often think of this priest who had such great devotion to Our Lady. He knew from a lifetime of prayer that she was the one who leads us ever-closer to her Son and who holds all of our worries, concerns, sufferings and joys close to her Immaculate Heart. For this teaching-friar, the Rosary connected his heart to Mary's, and he confidently placed everything before her. "Our dear Mom never lets us down," he was fond of saying.

We pray the Rosary together as a parish every Saturday morning after the 8:30am Mass, and we also offer a virtual opportunity on Sunday afternoon at 3 pm. (See bulletin for contact information). If it has been awhile since you have prayed this beautiful devotion, don't be afraid to pick-up the beads again and spend a few minutes praying for someone you love or for clarity and wisdom with a concern you are facing. As Padre Pio was fond of saying: "The Rosary is a weapon in our hands, and I have never been refused a grace through praying it."

We extend our condolences and prayers to the families of those who have recently died:

Eternal rest Grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Julie Schmitt

We extend a warm welcome to our newly registered members....

This passage from the book of Exodus enjoins all to adhere to specific religious and social laws. It urges all to act with justice and compassion towards others.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Paul praises the Thessalonians for receiving the word of God so eagerly and totally. Word of their faithfulness has spread throughout Macedonia and Greece; they have become a model for all Christians.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

Matthew recounts the incident in which a lawyer, seeking to entrap Jesus, asks, "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?" With simplicity and authority, Jesus responds that the first commandment is to love God with one's entire being; the second is to love one's neighbor as oneself.

DIOCESAN NEWS

MARYLANDERS AND DELAWAREANS CAN GIVE. WHERE WILL THE BENEFIT GO?

The Federal Scholarship Tax Credit is a national program.

If Delaware and Maryland participate, qualifying scholarship contributions can support students right here in our community.

Without Delaware and Maryland's participation, taxpayers may choose qualifying organizations in participating states - and those scholarship dollars will benefit students there.

For students across the Diocese of Wilmington, we need a "Yes" from both Governor Moore and Governor Meyer. Visit cdow.org/sayyes and urge both of them to opt-in for all students in the Diocese of Wilmington.

Great News: Old Bohemia is Reopening! We have some wonderful news to share from the latest issue of The Dialog, dated September 6th! After two years of extensive renovations to repair its sinking floor and structural damage, the Saint Francis Xavier Shrine – the mother church of our diocese – is officially reopening!

Bishop Koenig will celebrate a special Mass on Sunday, December 6th for the beginning of Advent and the Feast of St. Francis Xavier. We encourage you to read the full article. Go to thediolog.org then search for St. Francis Xavier to learn about the incredible effort, it took to restore this beautiful historic church located just down the road in Warwick (1704 Bohemia Church Road).

2026 Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal:

Celebrating 50 Years Together - As we approach the final quarter of this historic year, we continue to celebrate 50 years of the Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal and the extraordinary generosity that has sustained its mission. For five decades, Catholics throughout the Diocese of Wilmington have joined together to support more than 40 ministries that educate our young people, care for those in need, strengthen families, support our clergy and seminarians, and bring the hope of Christ to communities throughout Delaware and Maryland.

Thank you to all who have made pledges toward the diocese's annual appeal. Our goal this year is $105,000; we have pledges totaling $111,316. We will receive one-half of any amount collected over our goal. So far, the total funds collected are $102,418.

Please remember to fulfill your commitment and help provide essential funds for the many ministries in our diocese and parish. If you have not yet participated, there is still time. Thank you for your continued support of the Faith & Charity Catholic Appeal.
