Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The List ...

A piece of torn yellow legal paper caught my eye as I was setting up the chapel for our weekly Vocations Holy Hour a few weeks back. Seemingly left behind by a child who, according to the available evidence, was keeping himself busy during Mass or a religious education class, the paper contained a list of ten items that at least made sense to the one who wrote it.

A football topped the list, as did Legos and some video game I never heard of. Coming-in at number 6 is the word 'dog,' and numbers 2 and 10 both state: money and gift cards.

Is it a birthday list? An early Christmas list? Looking more closely, however, I wonder if it may be more than a "wish list." Nestled between the words "PlayStation 5" and cell phone was the statement "to know more about Jesus." In the midst of a lot of things, there was this rather bold declaration from a child. Was it on the top of his list? No. But God did make the Top 10, and in today's world, that says something. I wonder if on our adult wish lists we would remember to place God's Name there as well. Would anything related to faith even make our Top 5?

In Luke's Gospel this Sunday, Jesus asks the important question: when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?

At least according to our young mystery list writer, there is still hope that faith will still be found – even if it is mixed in with the Legos and the videogames to which we sometimes give a little too much priority!

†††††

Please join us after the 11:00 am Mass this weekend for our parish's annual Oktoberfest. In addition to the great food and music, the afternoon social event gives us an opportunity to spend some time together as a parish community, sharing faith and friendship. Many thanks to the Knights of Columbus Bishop Becker Council and all who worked to organize our gathering.

†††††

We extend our condolences and prayers to the families of those who have recently died:
Eternal rest Grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Readings for Next Week: Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

God is just and does not show favoritism, but hears the prayers of everyone. Anyone who serves God, no matter how lowly his position here on earth, will be heard and answered.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Paul writes to Timothy that he thinks his mission is near the end, and he is glad his faith is still strong. Paul hopes that all nations will hear the gospel. But, if he is executed as he anticipates, he is sure he will live forever in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple, and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector who was also there to pray. The tax collector was far more humble, acknowledging his sins, and asking forgiveness for them. Jesus said the tax collector's prayer would be heard because, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, while he who humbles himself will be exalted."

PARISH INFORMATION

Our parish will once again be celebrating October in style. Our Knights of Columbus Council will be hosting an Oktoberfest on today - October 19th from Noon to 3pm in the IC Ballfield.

Jubilee of Hope Cross: October 19th is technically the feast of Pope St. John-Paul II, a saint who guided our church during the lifetime of many of us. Sainthood is our goal whether we become a canonized saint on our church calendar or not. Our prayer life can be enhanced by reflecting on Scripture passages like John 3:16 "Arise in the silence of my heart." Or Matthew 19:26 "With God, all things are possible."

Rosary Cenacle – Join us in praying for our Youth. We will be hosting the Blue Hen Rosary Cenacle. every Friday from 5-6pm in the IC Chapel and also via Zoom. Let's pray for our youth and children who have fallen away from practicing the Catholic faith, have substance issues, or any difficulty in life.

Mass for Volunteers and Ministers will be Saturday, October 25th at 10:00 am at St. Jude Church, we will have a special Mass to honor and thank our many parish volunteers and ministers for all the ways they serve our parish community. A reception will follow with coffee and donuts after Mass. Whether you contribute your time and talent in big or small ways at IC/SJ, we hope you will join us at this Mass!

There will be no 8:30 am daily Mass at IC that morning (The Sacrament of Reconciliation will still be available at 9:00 am at IC). Please come to St. Jude Church for daily mass.

Christmas Bazaar: Many thanks to those who have already signed up to help at the bazaar. We are still in need of quite a few volunteers in several areas. Among those, we need help setting up on Friday, November 7th; help cleaning up on Saturday, November 8th at 4pm; and cashiers in the kitchen during 3 shifts throughout Saturday. The kitchen cashier job involves sitting at the cash register, ringing up food purchases, and managing payment. The machine we use is very straightforward and easy to use. Sign up using the Sign Up Genius or contact Terry Gustafson at teresa.gustafson@verizon.net or Jackie Gedz at Jackie.gedz@verizon.net

We are now taking donations (no text books or magazines) for the Book Nook. Besides books we will accept puzzles, CD's, and movies. Please bring them to the parish office during business hours.

Baked Goods – Please donate your favorite cakes, pies, cookies, desserts to the Baked Goods Table. Food donations should be brought to the Baked Goods Table on Friday, 11/7 between 3-7pm or Saturday, 11/8 between 8:30am to 9:30am. If you have questions contact Terry Gustafson.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Marriage Moments: In the northern hemisphere, Autumn is a season of leaves falling and nature taking a rest. Sometimes loving relationships need a rest from busyness too. What helps you refresh your love? – A walk in the woods together? A long nap? ...?

Parenting Points: It's Fall. Leaves are falling and piling up. Sure, you might challenge the family to rake them up but remember to have fun first – jump together in the leaves or hide in a pile of dead leaves.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

ICC OUTREACH: Outreach is open every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings from 9:30am - 11:30am located in rear of the Parish Center.

Thank you to all who have donated to the Outreach Program through various resources like Vanco, church poor box, memorial contributions as well as anonymously for food and non-food items.

When we give from the heart, the act of food donation becomes a gesture of love.

If you can donate any of the items below, please drop them off at the Parish Center during business hours or at either church before the Mass. - Thank you.

Food: corn, jelly, green beans, jello

Toiletries: bars of soap, toothpaste, shampoo

Household: dish detergent, laundry detergent

Please bring in your Redner's receipts for Outreach! Check with Redner's courtesy desk to see how ICC Outreach can get credit for your purchase!

Community Kitchen: Our fall Community Kitchen will be held on October 24th at Elkton Presbyterian Church at noon. Our menu will include fried chicken, scalloped potatoes, cranberry sauce, fruit, and dessert.

We are needing people to make scalloped potatoes and desserts, and to donate cranberry sauce and fruit for our guests. Donations can be left at the Parish Center the day before, or morning of the event, or brought directly up into the kitchen at the Presbyterian Church before serving time. If you are interested in making, donating, or volunteering for a couple of hours for this very worthwhile event, please call Joyce Speakman at 610-597-3135, or Kathy Chamberlin at 410-398-7299.
