REFLECTION
By Fr. Rich Jasper
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 26, 2025

Oh, When the Saints Come Marching In ...

Growing up, I was mesmerized by the tales of the saints: Francis of Assisi's willingness to walk away from wealth and privilege to give his life to the poor; Catherine of Siena's holy boldness in telling a pope he was wrong; the Jesuit martyrs of Canada willing to risk all – including their very lives – to bring the Gospel to the native peoples. Their unique ways of demonstrating both faithful courage and love of Christ made me want to be a saint, too.

Then came my teen-age years ...

And yet, that youthful, innocent desire for holiness still remained buried, like a seed planted deep within the ground. It remains true for all of us, I suspect, no matter how far we may stray from the saintly path on our life's journey. God made us for Himself, and His covenantal love is constantly seeking us out, desiring that seed of holiness to sprout and bloom.

This is one of the many reasons why the Church places All Saints Day (November 1) on the liturgical calendar every year: to remind us that we are called to be saints, and that there are countless men, women and children who may never be officially canonized but who, with God's grace, are spending eternity praising Him and interceding for us. They pray that we will one day be where they now are. As Wilmington's second bishop once wrote: "May we remember on this day the vast army of unknown saints who did common things uncommonly well, who toiled, waited and suffered; who believed, hoped, loved and frequently repented. These we can imitate."

And indeed, we should. As All Saints Day falls on Saturday this year, it is not a Holy Day of Obligation. However, please consider joining us for Mass at 8:30 am at Immaculate Conception to remember the saints who are cheering us on and who light our way to Christ.

✠✠✠✠✠

Special thanks to the Bishop Becker Council of the Knights of Columbus, their families and the many volunteers who made our Annual Oktoberfest such a wonderful afternoon of food, fellowship and fun. We truly are blessed to have so many opportunities to come together as a family of faith to share our lives and our love of Christ with one another.

Join us today after the 9am Mass at St. Jude Church for Trunk or Treat. All families are welcome to participate!

Those who left this earth before us are at peace, in the hands of God. The Lord is their King forever, and His grace, mercy and love are with His elect.

Second Reading: Romans 5:5-11

Rejoice in our Lord Jesus Christ! For through His death and resurrection we have been reconciled and shall have eternal life. By the power of the Holy Spirit God has given us hope, and hope does not disappoint.

Gospel: John 6:37-40

Jesus calls Himself the Bread of God, the giver of life to the world. True bread from heaven, not the manna Moses fed his people in the desert. Through the Eucharist we remember, celebrate and believe. All who believe in Him will have eternal life, and the Father will raise them up on the last day.

The Annual IC/SJ Christmas Ball will be on Saturday, December 6th at the Chesapeake Bay Golf Club, Rising Sun hosted by the Knights of Columbus. See flier on last page for more details and purchase tickets by scanning QR code or visiting the parish office. Checks need to be written to Knights of Columbus Bishop Becker Council 2427.

Jubilee of Hope Cross: This week we celebrate the feast of Saints Simon and Jude. Saint Simon was known as “The Zealot”. God calls us all to be zealots by witnessing to our faith by practicing the Beatitudes or recalling this passage from Luke's Gospel: “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.” We are challenged. St. Jude is known as our “go to” saint for seemingly hopeless situations. We know when we pray, when we spend time talking with God, many situations are clarified, maybe not solved, but we can receive understanding, and clarity. God is always with us. His words are written on our hearts.

Rosary Cenacle – Join us in praying for our Youth. We will be hosting the Blue Hen Rosary Cenacle every Friday from 5-6pm in the IC Chapel and also via Zoom. Let's pray for our youth and children who have fallen away from practicing the Catholic faith, have substance issues, or any difficulty in life.
