REFLECTION

By Fr. Rich Jasper

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

December 28, 2025

Chalk It Up...

I recently visited a parishioner's home in which I was so happy to see the following description placed above their front door: 20+C+M+B+25. Although it is rare to come across this pattern of numbers, letters and symbols in Christian homes today, it is a powerful tradition that was once quite commonly used to celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany (or Three Kings Day).

If you have done this in your own homes, you will remember that the numbers at the beginning and the end represent the year; the crosses stand for Christ; and the letters have a two-fold significance: C, M and B are the initials of the traditional names of the Magi (Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar), but they are also an abbreviation of the Latin blessing Christus mansionem benedicat, which means: "May Christ bless this house." Some believe the Christian custom came from the Biblical precedent of the Israelites marking their doors to be kept safe from the Angel of Death.

Yet, there is also another beautiful meaning behind the chalk inscription as well. Just as the Holy Family showed loving hospitality to the Magi who had traveled from Gentile lands to honor the Christ Child, it also demonstrates a family's willingness to welcome all who come to visit as if that visitor were Christ Himself. By blessing our home, we are inviting God to enter and remain with us.

If you feel so led this Epiphany weekend, why not pick up a packet prepared by our Faith Formation Committee and inscribe in small characters above your front or back door: 20+C+M+B+26. In the New year, let Christ enter your home and your heart: He is the King of Glory.

On behalf of Fr. Dunne and Fr. Gebhart, Deacons Ben and Mike and our entire Immaculate Conception/St. Jude parish team, I wish you and your family a joy-filled and healthy 2026. May God be good to you.

We extend our condolences and prayers to the families of those who have recently died:

Eternal rest Grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Jubilee of Hope: Jesus often draws apart to pray in solitude, on a mountain, preferably at night. He includes all men in his prayer, for he has taken on humanity in his incarnation, and he offers them to the Father when he offers himself. His words and works are the visible manifestation of his prayer in secret. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). May we follow our Lord's example now and forever.
