REFLECTION
By Fr. Rich Jasper
First Sunday in Lent
February 22, 2026

Quote Unquote...

I am a quote collector. If I read or hear something that might one day come in useful in a homily or as a prayer meditation, I write it down. In fact, my journal really could be best described as a "Book of Others' Holy Sayings" because these quotes really do inspire and motivate me to want to grow in relationship with our Lord and become the saint Christ is calling me (and all of us) to be.

Here then are some of the quotes that I have collected over the years which pertain to our Lenten journey. If one or more of them speak to you, place them somewhere that might be helpful to your own time of prayer and meditation these next 40 days:

"Have patience with all things, but first of all with yourself." -- St. Francis de Sales (Great advice!)

"Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday." – Bishop Fulton Sheen

"As Lent is a time for greater love, listen to Jesus' thirst; He knows your weaknesses. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you." – Mother Teresa

"The ultimate goal of fasting is to help each of us make a complete gift of self to God." – Pope Benedict XVI

"God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking His mercy." – Pope Francis

"Lent is a time of going very deeply into ourselves. What is it that stands between us and God? Us and others? Whatever it is, let us relentlessly tear it out without a moment's hesitation." – Catherine Doherty

May your Lenten season be filled with many graces and blessings. Please join us at daily Mass, Bible Study and Stations of the Cross in the days to come.

We extend a warm welcome to our newly registered members..... Charles & Dawn-Marie Jackson and family, Helen Passmore

Please join us next Sunday, March 1st at St. Jude Church in the Praise Room for "Donut Sunday" following the 9am Mass.

The Jubilee Prayer of St. Francis

(composed by Pope Leo XIV)

St. Francis, our brother, you who 800 years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us before the Lord. You recognized true peace in the Crucifix of San Damiano; teach us to seek in Christ the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall. You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world raises up boundaries. In this time afflicted by conflict and division, intercede for us so that we can become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ. Amen.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Marriage Moments: Even if you don't consider yourself a spiritual or prayerful person, try praying for your spouse today. It won't take but a moment after you read this, and it can't hurt. You might even get an answer to an unasked question.

Parenting Pointers: The average U.S. child is exposed to approximately 8 ½ hours of media a day. Sure, some of that is at school and some is multitasking, but it's still way too much. Do you know how much time your child watches a screen? Try counting the hours for one day.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

2026 Faith and Charity Appeal -

Many Hands One Mission: A 50 Year Legacy

Next weekend marks the start of the 2026 Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal throughout the Diocese of Wilmington. For 50 years, this appeal has united many hands in one mission – serving those in need, forming our faith, and ensuring the Church’s growth for generations to come.

This year, participation matters more than ever. For every parishioner who gives for the first time, 50% of their donation will stay right here in our parish to support our own ministries and local needs. Once our parish reaches its overall goal, we also receive a share of funds raised beyond that goal – strengthening our community even further.

Your gift, at any level, helps continue a 50-year legacy of faith, hope, and charity that builds up the Church in Delaware and Maryland’s Eastern Shore.

Please prayerfully consider your support and come to Mass next weekend ready to make your pledge to this year’s Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal.

To learn more, visit www.cdow.org/giving.

Deanery Lenten Morning of Reflection

Saturday, March 7, 2026

8:00 AM - Registration / Breakfast (Hopkins Hall)

9:00 AM - Speaker Reflection (Church)
“Living Flexibly in an Anxious World”

10:00 AM - Confessions (Church)
and Deanery Displays (Gathering Space)

11:00 AM - Eucharistic Mass (Church)

Location: St. Margaret of Scotland Church
2431 Frazer Road / Glasgow, Delaware.

Fr. Jim will speak on the topic of “Living Flexibly in an Anxious World” and use insights from Salesian spirituality and Scripture. Speaking about the legacy of St. Francis de Sales, Pope Francis praised the saint’s realization that “the world was changing, and the mark of a completely evangelical response was flexibility and a farsighted vision.” We, too, are challenged to be a church that is outward looking and free of all worldliness even as we live in the world.

- Seeking Balance: A flexible heart will always bend not break.

Fr. Jim Greenfield, an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales, began his tenure as president of DeSales University in 2018 and serves as the first alum in the role. He was provincial of the Wilmington-Philadelphia Province for 10 years from 2008 – 2018 while residing in the Diocese of Wilmington. Prior to that, Fr. Jim taught at George Washington University, The Catholic University of America, and the former Washington Theological Union, all in Washington, DC, alongside his work in Oblate formation.
