The Trouble Tree

A good friend just shared this story with me (author unknown), and I thought it offered some food for thought when the troubles of the world and work weigh us down. The story is told from a homeowner's perspective:

"I hired a plumber to help restore an old farmhouse I had recently purchased. On the day he started our job, he found out that much of the piping he ordered had been stolen from his shop and one of his employees didn't show up for work. What's more, his favorite drill quit working, and his truck wouldn't start when he was ready to head home for the day.

As I gave him a lift back to his house, he sat in stony silence, but on our arrival he invited me to stop in and meet his family. As we walked toward the front door, he paused briefly at a small maple tree, touching the tip of the branches with both hands.

As the plumber opened the door to his home, he underwent an amazing transformation. His face was one big smile as he hugged his young children and greeted his wife with a kiss on the cheek. As he walked me back to the car after our brief time chatting inside, we passed the tree, and my curiosity got the best of me. I asked about what I saw him do earlier.

'Oh, that's my trouble tree,' he said. 'I know I can't help having bad moments at work, but those troubles don't belong in the house with my wife and kids. So, I just hang them on the tree every night when I come home and ask God to take care of them. Then, in the morning, I pick them up again. Funny thing: when I pick them up the next day, there aren't nearly as many as I remember hanging up the night before.'"

Not a bad idea, perhaps, to find our own "trouble tree," whatever that may be for you or me. When we give our worries and troubles to the Lord each day in prayer, He does take care of them, and works all things out according to His Will.

And Jesus said: "Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

✠✠✠✠✠

We extend a warm welcome to our newly registered members.....Jeffrey & Nancy Moore

We extend our condolences and prayers to the families of those who have recently died:

Eternal rest Grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Readings for Next Week:
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities." Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for someone who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians, we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

Jubilee of Hope Cross:

The last phrase in the old hymn "Morning Has Broken" (#627 in Breaking Bread – take a moment the next time you are in church to read and meditate on this amazing praise song) encourages us to praise each morning God's creation of a new day. May we always be grateful for the blessings and even the challenges our triune God presents us every morning, evening, and night. May we, parishioners of Immaculate Conception and St. Jude, enter each moment in HOPE and FAITH and TRUST as we travel on this Jubilee of HOPE year.

It is time to renew your Magnificat or become a new subscriber. The Magnificat is a monthly publication designed for daily use, to encourage both liturgical and personal prayer. It can be used to follow daily Mass and can also be read at home or wherever you find yourself for personal or family prayer.

ICC/SJ Church offers a yearly subscription to parishioners (starting in October 2025). The cost is $39 if you wish to receive the subscription through us. Please contact Joan at the Parish Office at 410-398-1100 and payments need to be made by August 11, 2025.

The next golf committee meeting will be Tuesday, August 5th at 3:00pm in the Parish Center.

As we prepare to host our 15th Annual Golf Classic Monday, September 15, 2025, we invite you to join us at the Newark Country Club, the same location where we celebrated our 175th anniversary this past December. Newark is known for its exceptional course as well as for its hospitality and food-catering services. Not a Golfer? You are welcome to join us for dinner, starting at 5:15pm. Please visit our website at www.iccelkton.org to register your team or come to the evening activities.

FAITH FORMATION
