REFLECTION

By Fr. Rich Jasper - July 6, 2025
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Force of July (and other months, too)

I heard about Dotty Fritz before I actually met her. "She's a force," one diocesan priest-friend said upon learning I was heading to Immaculate Conception to become pastor. He wasn't wrong.

"Force" is a good word to describe the woman who has coordinated our parish Outreach program officially for the past 29 years. (She also volunteered with Outreach long before taking the reins.) Dotty has helped countless people in Cecil County find temporary shelter, assistance with overdue bills, and treatment places for various struggles they face in life. She'll pick up a phone and fight for what's right and what's needed; she'll seek out new avenues of help; and she'll take the time to really listen to the unspoken hurts and broken hearts of all who stop by Bow Street.

Using one of her own favorite lines, I say this: "Don't misunderstand me" -- Dotty would never claim this "force" she has was due to her gifts, talents and efforts. Rather, she'd point instead to three reasons why Outreach at ICC has been such a blessing for so many: God's goodness, the selfless volunteers, and the overwhelming generosity of our parishioners and community partners. It has never been about Dotty Fritz. It was always about God and others. Always.

Okay, well not always: on August 10th at St. Jude, we will be celebrating the retirement of our beloved Dotty, who concluded her time with Outreach this past Monday, June 30. The ministry will continue, no doubt, but we will all miss that New York-native "sparkle" that made Outreach and our community so unique.

More information about Dotty's celebration will be forthcoming. For now, though, I thank God for all she and the volunteers do for our Outreach program. Say a prayer of thanksgiving for her, and continue to pray and support this beautiful and important ministry of our parish. Nothing would make the "Force" happier!

A few additional notes of gratitude while we are at it:

- To Vickie Eichler, the catechists and volunteers who toiled and labored in the extreme heat to provide an enriching Summer Academy experience for our religious education students. By all accounts, it was a rousing success.
- To Barbara Ruhmann and the environmental-liturgical committee members who decorated our Church for Corpus Christi Sunday and Confirmation: your care for our sanctuary enhances our communal worship. To all who participated in the Eucharistic Procession, thank you for making the ceremony such a beautiful witness of our faith. No doubt our Lord was honored and pleased.
- Lastly, to all who have generously contributed to our St. Jude parking lot fund and to the diocesan Annual Appeal, I am grateful for the ways in which you support the ministry we do.

Have a blessed and safe holiday weekend, Fr. Rich

Readings for Next Week:
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says, "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.

PARISH INFORMATION

Dear Parishioners:

Although my intention would be to tell you in person, circumstances warrant that I communicate to you via email and social media that I have been asked by Bishop Koenig to take on the sacramental, pastoral and Mass schedule for Good Shepherd parish (and its two mission churches) for the summer months while their pastor takes time for health restoration. Gratefully, the diocese has been able to provide some additional priest-help so that we at Immaculate Conception do not have to cover all the daily and Sunday Masses in Perryville, Rising Sun and Port Deposit.

Please know that I continue to remain in service to you as your pastor, and although I may be taking on a few more Mass and sacramental responsibilities down Route 40, you are my first priority and remain foremost in my heart and prayers.

Please pray for the community of Good Shepherd and their pastor in this challenging time for them. Pray, too, for an increase in vocations to the priesthood for the Diocese of Wilmington. Now more than ever, it is clear we need to ask the Master to send more holy laborers into his vineyard.

Love in Christ, Fr. Rich

Immaculate Conception Church is looking for donations to replace our Flagon. A Flagon is a container to carry the wine to the altar during the procession of the offertory gifts. The estimated cost is $1,200.00 for this sacred vessel. You can drop a check in the collection basket or send a check to the parish office – (please note on your check that it is for the flagon).

Please join us at Immaculate Conception Church next weekend, July 12/13 for "Coffee Social" following the 5pm, 7am and 11am Masses in the vestibule.

Please join us next Sunday, July 13th at St. Jude Church in the Praise Room for "Donut Sunday" following the 9am Mass.

Attention all parish committee chairs and group leaders: There will be a facility and calendar planning meeting Monday, July 14th, at 6:30 pm in the parish center. Please be prepared to provide dates and times regarding any events you are planning from September through Advent. Our goal is to better coordinate all the activities in our parish as groups are asking to use our facilities and resources more. A chairperson, or a designated representative, from each committee and group needs to be present.
