Sending Forth

It seems as though he just got here!

It is with a certain sadness but also with gratitude to God for seminarian Kaya Manizade's presence among us these past seven weeks that we now send him back to St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore to continue his studies for the priesthood. He was a shining light in our parish community this summer: serving Masses, interacting with the students at the Summer Academy, offering reflections at our Friday Holy Hour and learning as much as possible from those who serve Immaculate Conception and St. Jude in a host of important ways.

On behalf of Bishop Koenig and the diocesan Vocation Office, I want to thank you for showing Kaya the blessing that a supportive and loving parish community is for anyone who is discerning a call to the priesthood or consecrated life. Your prayers and concern for him helped Kaya to understand more fully the kind of priests the Church needs today, and no doubt he will take what he learned here with him as he moves through his priestly formation program.

In the years ahead, please continue to pray daily for Kaya, as well as for all those discerning God's call to dedicate their lives to serving the Church. With Kaya and others like him, the Church that we love is in good hands (and hearts).

Thank you, Kaya, for giving of yourself so generously to all of us, including the staff, deacons and priests of Immaculate Conception/St. Jude. We are all the better for having had you journey with us on the way to the Kingdom. Know that you are always welcome here, and you need not power-wash any deck furniture or cut down overgrown rose bushes when you come to stay again!

Continued blessings,
Fr. Rich

PS – Our parish purchased the cassock (religious vestment) Kaya will need to serve Masses at the seminary and diocesan events. Each time he wears it, no doubt Kaya will remember that his Immaculate Conception/St. Jude family is praying for him, and hopefully he will offer a prayer for us.

Kaya's seminary address if you want to drop him a note from time to time:

Readings for Next Week:
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9

In this excerpt, the Israelites are reminded that they were warned before God sent an angel to slay the first born of the Egyptians. God called on them to have courage, and then rewarded them by punishing their enemies and leading them from captivity.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Faith is described as true belief even toward things we cannot see. Abram's faith in God was so deep that he wandered through a foreign land, convinced God's promise of a homeland was sincere. God honored his promise to give Abram many descendants, and was proud of the deep faith Abram and his people possessed.

Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

Jesus encourages us to be prepared for his return at all times, for he will come when we least expect him. He tells of a master who entrusts his home to his servants, and fully expects them to be awaiting his return. In the same manner, Jesus can arrive at any moment and expects us to be prepared for his return.

Please join us at Immaculate Conception Church next weekend August 9/10 for "Coffee Social" following the 5pm, 7am and 11am Masses in the vestibule.

Please come celebrate Dotty Fritz's retirement from the Outreach Program on Sunday, August 10th after the 9am Mass at St. Jude Church. It is an opportunity for all of us to thank Dotty for her decades of ministry to all those in need.

As you know, Dottie Fritz retired from her role as Outreach Coordinator after decades of committed and loving service to those in need in Cecil County. In the interim, our team of Outreach volunteers has done a commendable job of organizing and running the program in the absence of a coordinator, and we are truly grateful for their selfless service.

As we prepare a detailed job description for the position, please know that the parish is still committed to providing services and Gospel charity to those most in need. If you know of anyone who might be interested in this position -- who has a true heart for Outreach -- please feel free to invite them to reach out to Fr. Rich (or any of the Outreach volunteers) for more information. Most especially, please make it your specific prayer intention these next weeks that God sends us the person who is meant to continue the sacred ministry of Christian service that our parish provides for so many.

Jubilee of Hope Cross:

Prayer takes many forms. When we consciously offer our actions to our Lord, that is prayer. We thank parishioner Carol Sickles for prayerfully creating the green drapes for Ordinary Time now on our Jubilee of Hope crosses. It's not that these weeks are "ordinary", but are numbered, from the Latin word "ordo" indicating a series. In the weeks ahead you may be asked to fill out a paper requesting your insights about prayer. All responses are anonymous, and information will be shared in future bulletin announcements. May be benefit from one another's prayer life.

The next golf committee meeting will be Tuesday, August 5th at 3:00pm in the Parish Center.

Our 15th Annual Golf Classic will be Monday, September 15, 2025, we invite you to join us at the Newark Country Club. Not a Golfer? You are welcome to join us for dinner, starting at 5:15pm.

Please visit our website at www.iccelkton.org to register your team or come to the evening activities.
