For a fresh approach to a Lenten calendar, explore a variety of values with young children this Lent. Our Lenten Countdown for Children invites children to choose a good value to practice each day, coloring and numbering circles as they go to track their progress. Values listed include sharing, patience, honesty, and more—all traits covered in the book A Whole Bunch of Values.

A Whole Bunch of Values

LENTEN COUNTDOWN FOR CHILDREN

Each day, choose a value to practice. Color in the circle when you've lived according to that value. Number each circle as you go to count the days of Lent.

Learn more about values by reading A Whole Bunch of Values.
