TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Today we hear Jesus tell a parable of a landowner who takes tender loving care of his vineyard. He tends it, protects it, and watches over it, much as the vineyard owner in Isaiah's parable does. But at harvesttime his tenants assault those he sends to collect the harvest, even his own son. Jesus must realize how closely this parable will resonate with his own life. He asks the chief priests and elders what the landowner will do these tenants. They reply, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times" (Matthew 21:41). They are so close. They realize these tenants deserve punishment. They know the vineyard needs a proper harvest. But they're missing an essential part. As Jesus will soon say from the cross, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34). The blood shed in the parable becomes redemptive on the cross. The son rejected by the tenants becomes the cornerstone of our faith. The vineyard—that is, our world and all who are in it—is now entrusted to us. We must give it the tender loving care God desires, so we can produce fruit for God's kingdom.

What will you do that will bear fruit for others and for God?

RCIA “Hope of the Harvest. . .the Kingdom of God” is our teaching on Wednesday in RCIA. People throughout the Espanola Valley, Chimayo, Pojoaque and Santa Cruz are coming to the end of the harvest of their crops: chili, corn, cucumbers, tomatoes, zucchini. . .so it would be easy to relate this event to the teaching of Jesus that the kingdom of God is at hand. The signs of the kingdom are the rich harvest, the abundant yield.

We, as Catholic Christians, believe that our Lord is present in his word and in the blessed Eucharist we receive each time we are present at Mass. We believe that Jesus is present with us when two or more of us gather in his name. We also believe that Jesus is present with us every moment of every day—he promises us, “Why do you worry? Do you not know that I care for you even as I care for the lilies of the field and the birds of the air?” And, his promise, “I will be with you to the end of time.”

We believe God created us to be obedient to his will. We need to pray daily for all those things we are thankful for. We experience signs of the kingdom when we experience and see good relationships, peace within and among families and nations, growth in our lives, a sense of community in our church and in where we live, sharing among people, serving those in need, taking responsibility for our actions. . .

We know that the kingdom of God is not yet fulfilled. We are struggling with warring among nations, with the possibility of taking part in combating a serious threat to stability in Middle Eastern nations, the destructive threat Ebola is posing to our African brothers and sisters, economic problems, destruction of family life and values and so many divisions in our government. Our baptismal faith is not being lived as we promised although to live this faith would bring great dignity to us as children of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus himself.

So, in our lives today, we experience both living in the kingdom now and very aware of its absence. One of the greatest virtues we have as Catholic Christians is the virtue of HOPE! We place our hope in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. People who have all they need sometimes feel they have no need for hope. We hope regardless of our circumstances or the concern for what’s happening in our world. . .because our hope is centered in JESUS!!

Please come to RCIA this Wednesday. We meet from 7-9 and invite not only those who would like to receive the sacraments of the Church, but also those who want to grow in their knowledge and love of Jesus Christ. Any adult who would like to join our Sponsor Ministry is invited to come to RCIA. Please call the number in the bulletin to offer your help. WE NEED YOU!!!

We also have an RCIA journey of faith for children who have not been baptized and whose parents or guardians would like them to learn the teachings Jesus himself gave us. We meet with the children Wednesdays from 7-8:30 pm.

O Jesus, I pray for your Priests, for faithful and fervent priests,
for your unfaithful and tepid Priests,
for your Priests laboring at home or abroad,
in distant misson fields,
for Your tempted Priests,

for the Souls of the Priests in Purgatory.
But above all, I recommend the Priests dearest to me:
The Holy Father
The Priest who baptized me
The Priests who absolved me from my sins
The Priests whose masses I've attended and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion
The Priests who taught and instructed me
All the Priests who I am indebted to in any way.
Oh Jesus, keep them close to Your heart and Bless them

Walking with Moms in Need — Hope and Support for Pregnant Women: We need to walk with women who are pregnant in difficult circumstances and help them answer this call to welcome and care for their children. Concerns about a lack of material and financial resources, as well as an absence of physical and emotional support can push women to believe that abortion is their only option. As Catholics, we know that abortion is never the answer for a woman in need. During challenging periods in our lives, we all need the care and support of others. For a pregnant or parenting woman in need, the real, tangible support of others can provide hope and help her see a way forward. Through the combined efforts of parishes throughout our Archdiocese, we can help ensure that any pregnant or parenting women need can turn to the Church for compassionate, loving support and assistance. All information can be found at the following website: <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list to start.

Project Rachel — is a ministry of the Catholic Church, sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. It is a ministry of healing and mercy for post abortive men and women who grieve the loss of an infant to abortion. Do you know someone who has been involved in the abortion decision that they regret? Are you suffering from such a decision or the decision made by someone you love? There is hope for healing and reconciliation with the child, the family and God. For more information about Project Rachel, call 505-831-8238.
