Bowie, Oasis and Queen: the Final 3 Gigs in the Garden

We've been blessed with wonderful weather this year so the turnout to our Gigs in the Garden has been great.

We have three superb acts left for this year's summer series. On Saturday 16 August we welcome back Moonage, the Best of Bowie tribute band.

Moonage has the best Bowie frontman with the voice and the natural look of Bowie, backed by top-notch musicians. It's as good as it gets.

Since the 7-piece band launched here in 2022 they have grown in popularity, now selling out theatres across the country.

The band performs David Bowie's material from across three decades, selecting some of the best album tracks as well as those all-important, classic hits.

We will have a bumper crowd, a great atmosphere and a night of the finest music. Tickets are £20 in cash from the pub or £22 by card and online.

A fortnight later, Saturday 30 August, we'll be soaking up the sounds of Oasis, very much in the news for their current UK tour. If you haven't managed to see the real thing, or want another injection of their music, tribute band Oasiz are the next best thing. Tickets are £20 in cash from the pub or £22 by card and online (with no flexible ticket pricing in sight!).

To wrap up this season's Gigs in the Garden, we're excited to have Supersonic Queen performing here on Saturday 6 September.

Performing in UK and international theatres and festivals, Supersonic Queen are known for their dynamic recreation of Queen's iconic live performances. With an unparalleled energy and charisma this totally live 5-piece band deliver the best Queen tribute you'll see today.

We have seen Supersonic Queen live and they were excellent, involving the audience in their timeless music from the very first chord.

Tickets for Supersonic Queen are £22.50 in cash or £25 on card and online.

Don't forget, if you plan to eat here before the gigs you will need to pre-order your food from our Gigs in the Garden menu at least 24 hours before the gig, or at the time you buy your tickets.

We're Sponsoring Binfield Heath Dog Show

The Flowing Spring is proud to be sponsoring the Dog Show this year at the Binfield Heath Flower and Dog Show on Saturday 23 August.

As a dog-friendly pub, we thought it would be great to be associated with and support this well-established local event. 80 prizes are up for grabs for the best dogs in various categories. We will also be donating prizes for the event's main raffle, with vouchers and gig tickets to be won.

Taking place at its new ground opposite Coppid Hall on the Sonning Common Road, the show has a famous tea tent, food and drink from local hostellers, artisan stalls, plus traditional sideshows, tractor rides, farm animals, the Woodley Concert Band and more.

The main prizes will be awarded by local fashion icon Jeff Banks. You can enter your dogs for the Dog Show and your flowers and vegetables for the Flower Show by completing the entry form online.

Prepare to be Very Scared!

Sing-along-a-Nick returns for a Halloween Special!

The Sing-along-a-Nick trio have taken a long break from their antics over the summer but they're back with a vengeance with a Halloween Special on Saturday 25 October.

Particularly known for their Christmas and Valentine's shows, the band has decided to add Halloween to their calendar, to exhume all those classic hits about monsters, ghosts and devilish stuff. Called Sing-along-a-Scary Nick, the show will have props, costumes, sound effects and, of course, lots of music, to get your heart pounding and your blood oozing.

The gig will take place in the Acoustic Lounge with tickets just £5 each (cash) or £5.50 on card or online. Don't forget the annual Sing-along-a-Nicktivity Christmas shows take place on Friday 19 and Saturday 20 December, always a sell-out, packed with sackfuls of Christmas carols and cheesy hits. So whilst you're buying your Scary Nick tickets, grab your Nicktivity ones too - a treat for all the family! They're the same price. Let the fun resume!
