Six Live Music Dates this November...

Our live music continues its momentum through November and right through the winter. This month we have six dates for you, with some stunning live music booked for the Acoustic Lounge.
Here's a brief summary of what's on offer...

Saturday 7 November
Pretty Green, a tribute to The Jam
This hard working trio from Burnley in Lancashire return after their sell-out gig last March.
Whether it is a complex song like Burning Sky or Scrape Away or a classic like Going Underground or Start, you will be blown away by their musical talent and commitment to getting things right and sounding right.
Covering all albums, B sides and singles, this really will be another night to remember.
Tickets are from £12.

Saturday 14 November
The K&M Show presents a Night of Wit and Doom
This is a one-off treat! A night of entertainment featuring the excellent music and words of Kris King and Mister Minch, packed with story-telling and wit. You may have come across them both performing their quirky songs at our Slightly Plugged Nights. This, however, is an extravagance of their work, complete with guest musicians.
Tickets are just £1.30 cash. How can you refuse?

Saturday 21 November
Originals Night #2
After hosting three amazing acts in late September, we once again welcome more talented original acts to The Acoustic Lounge. We have soloists Molly Brown and Lizzie Cullen and the band Bowsey Woods. Entry is free and we would really appreciate a large crowd to show support for these talented artists.

Saturday 28 November
Vintage Voltage performing the greatest rock of the 60s and 70s
Clad in flares, boots, and unbuttoned shirts (pictured above), Vintage Voltage channels the spirit of rock's golden era, not as nostalgia, but as something alive, electric, and unmistakably fresh. Vintage Voltage isn't simply a tribute band; it's a travelling time machine. From the swagger of arena rock to the grit of blues-infused hard rock, they recreate the raw energy, groove and attitude that defined a generation. They deliver it with the intensity of musicians who grew up long after it first exploded.
We can't wait! Tickets are from £10.

In addition, we have our monthly Unplugged Night and Slightly Plugged Night on the 3rd and 27th of November respectively. Both these night are a great way to hear a selection of musicians up close and personal in the cosy bar. Entry is free.Food is available at all our events. Those gigs happening in the Acoustic Lounge require pre-orders for food from our Acoustic Lounge menu.

Over 100 Videos on our YouTube Channel

We now have over 100 videos on our YouTube gigs channel! All filmed, edited and produced in-house, they're a great record of many of the acts that have graced our stages. Crucially, many of these videos have helped propel bands to new heights as a great (and honest) promotion tool for getting bigger and better gigs.
We're so proud of the number of bands we have helped by providing these videos and professional photos free of charge.
If you haven't checked out our YouTube channel recently, just type Flowing Spring Gigs into YouTube search and then subscribe to get notified of future additions.
We've recently added Marky Dawson, Rocket Kings and Kozmic Pearl, all who played here in the last few weeks in the Acoustic Lounge.

Christmas and Hazel's Birthday

Here's a summary of what's happening in December, including Hazel's birthday...
Our Christmas Menu will be published very soon. It will be small but perfectly formed, and suiting all dietary needs. Most of your pub favourites will also be available.
Our festive opening hours will be added to our website in the coming days.
In terms of live music, we have the excellent Selina & the Howlin' Dogs hosting 'A Bluesy Kind of Christmas' on Saturday 5th December with special guests.
On Friday 18th, it's Hazel's birthday so we'll have Sing-along-a-Nick in the bar bashing out some Christmas tunes, followed by Karol-oke; a chance for you to sing your favourite festive songs karaoke style!
