
AYRA CHAIR

AYRA CHAIR

Ayra is born from the gesture of an embrace. Its curved backrest envelops with softness, creating a sense of refuge—not as a boundary, but as welcome. On the armchair, that gesture becomes grounded and contemplative, an invitation to pause. On the dining chair, it rises in precise proportions, supporting the body without sacrificing the lightness of the design.

There is a sculpture in its form, but never rigidity: each curve is conceived to follow the body, each angle striking a balance between ergonomics and beauty.

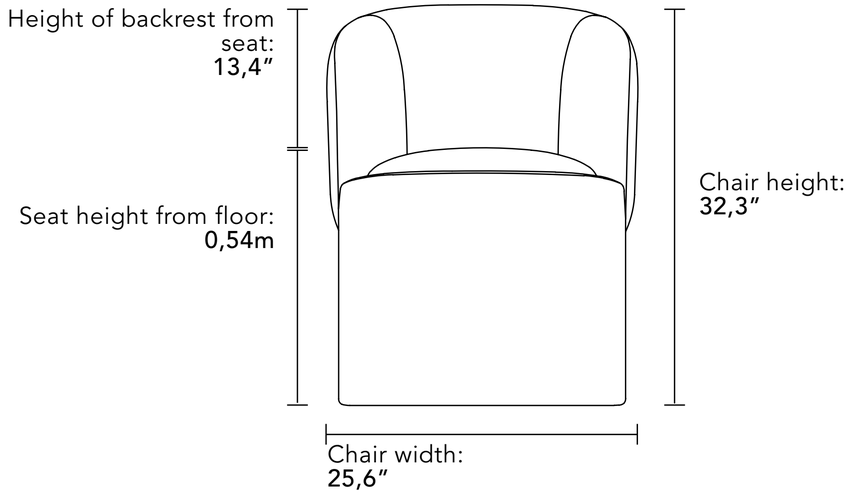

Ayra does not impose itself. It draws near. It is a delicate, essential presence.
