Remembering Those Who Made Life Special

Few things help in the healing process more than a meaningful ceremony that commemorates all that made a loved one special. A ceremony enables family and friends to come together, to remember, to celebrate, and to pay tribute to someone who was significant part of their lives. While each of us grieves differently, a structured ceremony is known to help all who participate.

When faced with the task of making end of life decisions, it is easy to feel overwhelmed. At English Funeral Chapels, we want to help minimize the difficulty in making those decisions.

We have compiled this booklet as a guide to help you and your family work through the decision making process.

DESIGNING YOUR CEREMONY

Help bring clarity to the fog

There are many reasons that we come together as a community. We celebrate many special occasions: birthdays, graduations, weddings, and anniversaries. Why should we not come together in our greatest time of need?

Funerals and Memorial services provide a remarkable opportunity to receive the gift of memories that others have shared with the person who has died. Many families are pleasantly surprised to hear stories about their loved one that they had never heard before. Being surrounded by family and friends and learning how their lives were touched can bring great comfort, closure, and celebration of a life well lived.

There are many ceremonial ways to honor your loved one. Your service can be as elaborate or as simple as you desire.

There are two important things to reflect upon. The first has to do with the ceremony itself, and the second with the burial. In the following pages, you'll learn more about each of these exceptional service packages.

English Funeral Chapels invites you to speak with one of our funeral directors anytime at (208) 664-3143 or (208) 773-3425, to answer any questions or explore your funeral and memorial options, at no obligation.

COMPLETE SERVICE WITH BURIAL

Having a service celebrates the life and the achievements of your loved one. The gathering of family and friends offers a special time for sharing thoughts and memories as well as an occasion for comfort and support for each other.

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

Prices are for a weekday burial and include setup and delivery within 45 miles. Please consult the fee schedule for out of town cemeteries or weekend services.
