Romans 15:13

Witness to the Resurrection of Jesus Christ at Silver Spring Presbyterian Church

Introduction

In the Presbyterian tradition a service of worship witnessing to Christ's resurrection marks the death of companions in faith and life. Though we are grieving, we are also called to give thanks to God for the life of the one who has died and for life everlasting promised in Jesus Christ.

The service is under the direction of the pastor; others may be invited to participate at the pastor's discretion. Services may be any day, Monday through Saturday, depending on facility and pastoral availability.

Ordinarily, services witnessing to the resurrection of Christ are in the Meeting House; if not, then in some suitable place such as a home, a funeral home, a crematorium, or at grave side. The service may be before or after the committal. Fraternal, civic or military rites will be conducted separately.

Coffin/Urn

The focus of worship is praise of God. At services witnessing to the resurrection of Christ, the coffin will be closed if placed in the Meeting House. At a time of visitation, customarily at some time before the service, the coffin may be open. The visitation may be at a home, funeral home, or in our Chapel.

Remembrances and Flowers

Items of personal remembrance such as portraits and memorabilia can be displayed in the Gathering Place.

Guest Registry

The church will provide a lectern for a guest book outside the doors of the Meeting House. Either the family or the funeral home may provide the guest book.

Flowers

Flowers in the Meeting House will ordinarily be limited to the casket spray and four (4) other arrangements. These arrangements will be placed on the floor before the chancel railing and in sills of windows adjacent to the chancel. Flowers beyond that will be displayed in the Gathering Place. If flower arrangements are left at the church, church members will distribute them for enjoyment elsewhere.

Neither remembrances nor flowers nor other objects may be placed on the communion table except those that are reminders of sacraments as provided by the Session.

Ushers

The family of the one who has died may request particular church members or friends to serve as ushers. Please call the church office with your request (717-766-0204).

Fees and Payments

Payment is due no later than the day of the service.
