

Women's Voice

January 1st to June 30th 2021

www.wossca.org.au

8952 6075

89537648

ws@wossca.org.au

It is essential that women and their children in Central Australia have the support they need to feel safe and dignified. The Women's Safety Services of Central Australia works alongside women who are experiencing Domestic and Family Violence towards our vision of a community free from violence.

3073

Requests for assistance across the service

544

Women and their children accommodated

3216

Bed nights at our Crisis accommodation

576

Women and their children supported by our Outreach team

115

Partners engaged with the Women's Safety Worker as part of the Men's Behavior Change Program

200

Women received Court Support