Dear New Patient,

The physicians at Aurora Family Practice Group would like to welcome you to our practice! We have been serving Aurora for over 30 years providing compassionate and comprehensive care to families like yours.

Let us tell you more about how our practice can meet your family's needs:

- All physicians are Board Certified in Family Medicine
- Specializing in the care of infants, children, and adults
- Preventive care, well-woman care, school physicals, DOT physicals
- Back-to-back appointments available for multiple family members
- Physicians on call 24 hours
- Same day appointments available for medically urgent issues
- Located across from the Aurora Medical Center South Campus - Aurora
- Ample free parking
- Currently accepting most insurances (No Medicaid. No NEW Medicare Patients)
- On site EKG's and pulmonary testing
- Our website address is <http://www.aurorafamilypractice.net> which includes a short bio on each physician and helpful patient handouts

We strongly encourage our patients to become active in their health and preventive care. Please schedule a complete physical exam soon after your initial visit. For your convenience we have included a consent form to release medical records from your previous doctor. If you have any further questions, please call our office at (303)369-1080.

Sincerely,

Martin D. Hannemann, M.D
