

BRAIN INJURY IN PENNSYLVANIA

FACTS & STATISTICS

WHO IS MOST AFFECTED

Adults age
75
and older.⁵

TBI is more common in men than in women.

COMMON CAUSES OF TBI

- Falls
- Motor vehicle crashes
- Sports-related injuries
- Explosive blast/military combat injuries

Leading causes reflect national CDC (2023) and Brain Injury Association of America (2025) data.^{5 6}

HOW MANY ARE AFFECTED?

More than

→ 2.4 million

Pennsylvanians—nearly one in five adults—report having experienced a traumatic brain injury.¹

ACQUIRED BRAIN INJURY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Acquired brain injury includes both traumatic and non-traumatic causes, such as stroke, epilepsy, and brain tumors.

TBI

2,421,553¹

Stroke

150,079²

Epilepsy

79,829³

Brain Tumors

50,063⁴

(Sources: CDC, WSO, WHO, Cancer Journal, 2023–2025.)

References:

1. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Self-Reported Traumatic Brain Injury Survey Efforts. Journal of Head Trauma Rehabilitation, 2025.
2. World Stroke Organization. Global Stroke Fact Sheet 2025. International Journal of Stroke.
3. World Health Organization (WHO). People Living with Epilepsy, 2024. WHO Website.
4. Neff C., Price M., Cioffi G., et al. Complete Prevalence of Primary Malignant and Nonmalignant Brain Tumors in the United States. Cancer, 2023.
5. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Surveillance Report of Traumatic Brain Injury–Related Hospitalizations and Deaths — United States, 2016–2020. U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2023. CDC Website.
6. Brain Injury Association of America (BIAA). Brain Injury Facts Sheet 2025. BIAA Website.

www.biapa.org

 BRAIN INJURY ASSOCIATION OF PENNSYLVANIA