

Fields of Faith and Freedom

LANCASTER AND GETTYSBURG

OCTOBER 25-29, 2026

Step back in time and enjoy a relaxed, enriching journey through the heart of Pennsylvania on Fields of Faith and Freedom, a thoughtfully paced tour designed to highlight the importance of faith in our country. Discover the charm of Lancaster County as you visit Amish farms and families, learn about their simple way of life, and take a peaceful buggy ride through the scenic countryside. Be inspired by the spectacular Sight & Sound Theatres production of Joshua, bringing biblical history to life with stunning sets and live animals. The journey continues to Gettysburg, where you'll visit the iconic battlefields and the Visitors Center, gaining a deeper appreciation for one of America's most pivotal moments. Blending faith, history, and pastoral beauty, this memorable tour offers comfort, reflection, and meaningful connection every step of the way.

$1599pp

Please add $689 for single

AMERICA

DEPARTS RAYMOND AND N. LONDONDERRY

New England Coach

17 Freetown Road, Raymond, NH 03077 www.newenglandcoach.com (603) 895-3000

Suggested itinerary

Day 1 Sunday October 25(D)

We depart for beautiful Lancaster, PA. Comfort stops, and a lunch stop will be made. Our 4 nights' accommodations are at the beautiful Amish View Inn, where you can look out your window to the pristine Amish Farms.

Day 2 Monday October 26 (B,D)

Step back in time with a guided journey across the historic Gettysburg battlefields, where a knowledgeable local guide brings the pivotal moments of the Civil War vividly to life. Travel through rolling fields and iconic landmarks as you hear powerful stories of courage, sacrifice, and strategy that shaped our nation's history. The experience continues at the Gettysburg National Military Park Visitor Center, featuring engaging exhibits, artifacts, and the unforgettable film and cyclorama that provide deeper context to the battle. This meaningful visit offers both education and reflection at one of America's most important historic sites.

Day 3 Tuesday October 27 (B,L,D)

Step into the heart of Lancaster County, PA with a knowledgeable local guide leading the way through the scenic countryside and rich Amish heritage. Visit authentic Amish quilting and bake shops, where handcrafted quilts and homemade treats showcase generations of tradition and skill. Enjoy time to explore charming Kitchen Kettle Village, filled with unique shops and local flavors. The day culminates with an inspiring performance of Joshua at the renowned Sight & Sound Theatre, bringing history and faith to life on a grand stage.

Day 4 Wednesday October 28 (B,L,D)

We begin with a visit to a local Amish furniture store, where time-honored woodworking traditions and fine craftsmanship shine, followed by a warm and welcoming lunch shared with an Amish family. The afternoon brings creativity and inspiration at Elva's Barnyard Art Studio, featuring an engaging chalk talk that blends art, storytelling, and faith. A sweet stop at Wilbur Chocolates adds the perfect treat before we cap off the day at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre, enjoying a delicious meal and the hit production 'Beautiful: The Carole King Story'—a joyful finale filled with music, memories, and meaning.

Day 5 Thursday October 29 (B)

As our Fields of Faith and Freedom journey comes to a close, we travel home with hearts full and memories made. From the quiet strength of Lancaster County's Amish farmlands to the powerful stories of sacrifice and unity on the Gettysburg battlefield, this tour has offered moments of reflection, inspiration, and connection. Comfort stops and a lunch stop will be made. Expect an early evening arrival home.

