

NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND

October 27th – 29th, 2024

This is not your typical Rhode Island Tour. We've combined timeless favorites with new and exciting attractions. You'll love spending time in Rhode Island during this beautiful time of year. See Newport from the sea on our narrated cruise around the Newport Harbor and lower Narragansett Bay. The newly opened Sailing Museum and National Sailing Hall of Fame will host us with a guided visit. Step back in time to the Gilded age and attend a Cotillion. Also, tour two 'summer cottages' of the elites. You'll be in awe at the Jack O Lantern Spectacular with thousands of carved pumpkins lining the paths at the Roger Williams Zoo. We'll round off this fall tour with a visit to a Cranberry Bog and see their wet harvesting of the berries.

ITINERARY

Sunday, October 27(D)

Enjoy the historic waterfront of Newport for lunch on your own. This afternoon take a seat aboard the Coastal Queen and relax as we experience the beautiful view from our narrated cruise. We'll cruise by lighthouses, estates, and forts. After our cruise, we will visit the Sailing Museum and National Sailing Hall of Fame for a guided tour. The fun isn't over yet for the day. Tonight, we have a special Cotillion Dinner planned for you. Our host will share what it was like to attend a Cotillion during the Gilded age and give us a few lessons along the way. 2 nights' accommodations Wyndham Newport.

Monday, October 28(B)(L)(D)

After our included breakfast we depart for Cornelius Vanderbilt II summer cottage, The Breakers. This 70-room mansion with its exceptional grounds will be yours to explore at your own pace. We'll also explore the home of Edward Berwind the coal tycoon at The Elms. This evening we're off to the zoo. A buffet dinner will be served prior to our stroll through over 5,000 carved pumpkins. This event isn't called SPECTACULAR for nothing!

Tuesday, October 29(B)

Once we are done with our included breakfast we will depart for a tour of a cranberry bog. This is the time of year where wet harvesting will be taking place. Learn firsthand from a farmer what it takes to harvest these fall favorites. Lunch and time on own will be in Plymouth, MA. You may want to take a walk along the water, visit the Mayflower, or Plymouth Rock while there. A late afternoon arrival home is expected.
