Offering Prayer

"Lord Jesus Christ, You asked your disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Give me the grace to answer with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Strengthen my faith so that I may stand firm upon your church. Through the intercession of Saint Rose of Lima, keep my heart pure and dedicated to your love. Guide my steps this weekend and let your peace guard my family and mind. Amen"

Gospel Reflection

The Gospel reading from Matthew 16:13-20 presents a pivotal moment when Jesus asks His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter responds boldly, affirming Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God. In response, Jesus declares Peter the rock on which He will build His Church and entrusts him with the keys of the kingdom of heaven. This exchange emphasizes the importance of personal faith, recognition of Christ's identity, and the responsibility entrusted to those called to leadership.

Offering Prayer

"Lord, strengthen my faith and help me recognize You as the Christ today. May I respond to Your call with courage, humility, and love, seeing the sacred in the people around me. Grant me the wisdom to serve faithfully and help me bear witness to Your kingdom in all I do. Amen"

Peter's journey reminds us that faith is active and requires courage. Like Peter, we may experience fear, doubt, or uncertainty, yet God calls us not for our perfection, but for our willingness to serve and grow in holiness. Just as Eliakim in the first reading from Isaiah 22:19-23 is appointed as a trustworthy steward, God chooses and equips people to carry out His purposes through humility, service, and steadfast faith.

This Sunday calls us to examine our personal faith: Who do we say Jesus is in our own lives? How are we responding to His call? We are challenged to take Jesus' Church beyond walls and institutions, seeing Christ in every person we encounter and acting as instruments of His love and grace. Some practical steps include praying for Church leaders, discerning your own calling, and offering service with humility and compassion.
