Coffee Hour

This week's coffee hour is sponsored by Sharon Law after Mass. We look forward to our time spent together each week. "Family Time," with our church family. What a gift. Next week's coffee hour will be Altar Society.

There is a new way to give at St. Mary that is quick, easy, and secure! With the giving platform you can make a one-time gift, set up a recurring gift, and log into your account to access your giving history.

2nd Collection Today's second collection benefits the Church in Africa. Next week's second collection benefits SVDP.

Offering Prayer

"Lord Jesus, as we journey through this week, grant me the wisdom to seek Your will and the strength to carry my cross. Increase my faith, hope, and charity, and guide the hands of our leaders to promote peace and justice for the most vulnerable. Keep my feet firmly on the path to eternal life. Amen"

Gospel Reflection

However, exploring the symbolic landscape of "heavenly reindeer" can be understood as a modern or culturally creative concept inspired by spiritual imagination, folklore, or literary reinterpretation. Reindeer in mythic or literary contexts often symbolize guidance, endurance, or the ability to traverse difficult terrain—qualities that can metaphorically align with spiritual ascent, guidance from divine law, or the journey of faith. In that sense, one could construct allegorical parables with parallels to biblical lessons:

The Hidden Herd: A reindeer discovers a hidden grove rich in food and shelter. With joy, it leads its companions there, leaving no one behind.

Lesson: The hidden treasure and pearl parables illustrate the immense value of God's kingdom and the joy of sharing its blessings.

The Trail of Light: Each reindeer in a herd leaves glowing tracks in the snow that help the others find their way in darkness.

Lesson: Like leaven in flour, small acts of faith and obedience can transform a wider community, reflecting the pervasive influence of righteousness throughout the world.

Holy Family Announcement

We only have one month left where we do not have someone signed up to help with church care and decorating. If you feel this is a ministry you can help with, please contact Heidi or Lynette.

Bring your shovels, clippers, pruners and gloves! The Knights of Columbus will be hosting a yard work party and clean up @ St Joseph @ Holy Family on Saturday August 1st starting @ 8:00 am. This will be followed by a BBQ lunch provided by the Knights and Altar Society. "Many hands make light work!"

Coffee Hour (some type of heading for this) There is a coffee hour sign-up sheet on the back table for those interested in hosting coffee and dessert following morning Mass. We are trying to see what type of response we get to see if this is something we want to do weekly, every other week or once a month. Please sign up if you would like to be involved!
