Gospel Reflection

God's forgiveness is unexpected and freeing. We may desire revenge, justice, or recognition from those who hurt us, but Jesus shows that true freedom comes not from their actions but from allowing God to change our hearts. Forgiveness does not mean that wrongs do not matter or that pain is erased; it is a conscious choice to release the debt, letting God heal what we cannot manage alone.

Offering Prayer

Oramos para que la alegría de encontrar Tu tesoro se desborde en nuestras vidas, transformando nuestras relaciones, nuestro trabajo y nuestras comunidades. Que podamos irradiar Tu amor y luz a quienes todavía están buscando, para que ellos también puedan descubrir los tesoros escondidos que has preparado para ellos.

En el nombre de Jesús,
Amén.

Prayer for Personal Reflection

Merciful Father, before we count what anyone owes us, we remember the debt You cancelled in us. It was beyond anything we could repay, and Christ paid it on the Cross while we were still far from You. Where we cling to anger, loosen our grip, so our hearts are no longer poisoned. Carry what we cannot yet forgive. Let Your mercy begin its slow work in us and help us to forgive from the heart, as we have been forgiven. Amen
