Dear friends in Christ Jesus,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus shares the familiar Parable of the Sower. The sower generously scatters seed everywhere, and the seed is the same in every place. What makes the difference is the condition of the soil. Jesus reminds us that the seed is the Word of God, and our hearts are the soil where that Word is meant to take root.

At times, our hearts can become hardened by pride, distracted by the worries and pressures of daily life, or overwhelmed by the pursuit of material things. Yet when we welcome God's Word with faith, humility, and perseverance, it bears abundant fruit—transforming our lives and enabling us to share Christ's love with others.

Each time we hear the Scriptures proclaimed, God is sowing His Word into our hearts. Let us ask ourselves: What kind of soil am I? May we allow the Lord to remove whatever prevents His Word from growing within us, so that our lives may produce a rich harvest of faith, hope, charity, and holiness.

May the Eucharist strengthen us to receive God's Word with joyful hearts and to bear fruit for His Kingdom.

May God bless you and your families.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Sanish Mathew HGN

A Morning Offering for Vocations

Dear Jesus, I rise today knowing that you are with me, that you see me and that you hear me. I offer you this day, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, my aches and pains, sorrows and humiliations: the cross I have this day. I desire to carry it with you like Simon of Cyrene, and I offer it with all the intentions of your

Sacred Heart, especially that you bless your Church with an abundance of holy priests, religious sisters and brothers to work for the good of your Kingdom. May there be an abundance of holy marriages to image your love and strengthen our society. I trust in you, Lord, and pray that many young people also trust in you and say "yes" to your call to follow you wherever you lead, since you are Love and Goodness itself. Amen
