Minutes of the Council of Catholic Women Meeting
Thursday, March 15, 2018 - Sister Bay

Program: Wayne Kudick on "Our Common Home". Environmental responsibility and protection.

The meeting was called to order by Connie Brandt at 9:55 with Prayer to our Lady of Good Counsel.

There were ten ladies attending the meeting representing four of the Stella Maris sites. Minutes of the February 15 meeting were read.

Treasurer's report was given showing a balance of $1335.46 and approved as read. Char received a thank you from the Angel Fund at Gibraltar School. Ann Krystaniak mentioned that the Prayer Shawl Group provides neck scarves for the graduating seniors.

Reports:
Commission reports: Spirituality Sharon Brabson provided us with a reflection about Jesus' Love and we shared two quotes.

Leadership: Pat Gureski spoke on the article from National Council of Catholic Women on growing our mission values. We need to brainstorm, dream, plan, organize and build our council.

Old Business:

Diocesan Anniversary Books: Volunteers were named for the three sites where the Council of Catholic Women will promote the sale of the Diocesan 150th Anniversary books on the third weekend of the month.

Discussion covered 2018 fundraiser ideas. It was decided to sponsor another pie sale in August. A committee will be needed for this event. Suggestions were made to the Care of the Common Home parish Committee that Wayne Kudick spoke about, the Sisters of the Word, needy families in the parish, as well as the Christ Child Society.

Raffle for DCCW: Char Mueller moved to purchase four tickets for the diocesan CCW raffle; Sylvia Kostiuk seconded. Motion passed. Tickets will be available at the April meeting.

Connie Brandt and Char Mueller volunteered to work on the pies sale committee.

Meeting hostess sign up was continued. The registration form for the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Spring Convention at Holy Cross, Mishicot was announced for April 21.

Meeting was adjourned with closing prayer at 11:10 a.m. Next meeting is April 19 at Sister Bay following the 8:00 am mass, and the May meeting will be in Egg Harbor on May 10 rather than the 17th so members can attend the Diocesan Marian Day in Green Bay. .

Acting Secretary, Pat Gureski