

Hobart Roundup 2026

The AA Promises
20–22 November

Hobart Bush Cabins, Kingston, Tasmania

Join us as we dive into the 12 Promises of recovery at a weekend of fellowship, meetings and guest speakers at the picturesque Hobart Bush Cabins in southern Tasmania.

Accommodation

Stay on site or make your own arrangements. The meetings, dining and recreation are all on site and the weekend is fully catered. If you want to add accommodation to your registration, you can choose from a range of options.

Getting there

By car, Hobart Bush Cabins is 10 minutes south of Hobart and 5 minutes north of Kingston.

How to book

Registration includes meetings and meals. On-site accommodation is available as an optional extra and is charged at cost.

To book go to:

or scan the QR code below.

Friday

Arrive Friday afternoon, register, get settled. After dinner, there's a welcome and meetings, which finish by 9pm. Maybe spend some time around the campfire connecting with old and new friends.

Saturday

Meditation, a stroll through the bush or a leisurely breakfast before the day of meetings begin. Lunch is catered. Enjoy some free time before the barbecue dinner and then kick back for an evening of entertainment and fun.

Sunday

After meditation and breakfast, we have our final meetings. The sobriety countdown followed by lunch will round out a great weekend.
