Social Justice Pilgrimage to Washington DC March 8-12, 2027 (2000.00)
Flight $500
Room $175 per night (700 total)
Museum Cost and donations 100$
2 Dinners 100$
Lunches and one dinner are self pay
Transportation cost built in to total
Working on transportation cost for a van and driver each day
Lodging at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria
Each room has a double bed, most have a private bath, some have a shared bath. You would have the option of attending any morning services on the campus
We would have breakfast in the dining hall at the seminary then take the public transit to DC. We would have dinner on campus and have time to discuss what we experienced during the day. If there is a particular site or monument you would like to see then there should be time in the afternoon for small group or individual adventures.

Agenda
Fly into Reagan Airport and then check in at VTS, go to Union Hall at 4ish for shopping and dinner
Tuesday March 9
AM 8:30 start time
National Museum of African American History and Culture no $
Lunch at Sweet Home Cafe (https://nmaahc.si.edu/visit/sweet-home-cafe?utm_source=si.edu&utm_medium=referral&utm_campaign=MyVisitSI)
PM (25 minute walk)
Chinese American Museum no $
Dinner at Immigrant Food https://immigrantfood.com/
Wednesday March 10
AM 8:30 Start time
National Museum of Women in the Arts no $
30 minute walk to next museum or bus 10 minutes
National Museum of the American Indian no $
Lunch at Mitsitman Cafe
https://americanindian.si.edu/visit/dc/dining
PM-National Museum of American History Behring Center, LGBTQ+ exhibit
Dinner on VTS Campus
Thursday March 11
AM 8:30 start time
Capital Jewish Museum (170$)
Museum of Palestine people (340$)
PM-Lunch at Open City Cafe, part of the National Cathedral
National Cathedral Tour and time for reflection and prayer
Dinner will be at Busboys and Poets, a historic Black Restaurant inspired by a poem by Langston Hughes.