Hocking Hills—America's Byway in Ohio
Some Unique Stops & Great Scenery
June 22-23, 2027 Double Occup. $499

Dear Way To Go Traveler,

I guess people around Columbus, Ohio did not want us to know about this "gorgeous" location of scenery. Somehow it leaked out. Did you know there was a Pencil Sharpener's Museum and a place still making washboards—plus a 20-mile scenic area called the Hocking Hills Byway! Now you know? Read on for a different adventure.

Includes:
Lodging: 1 night: Holiday Inn Express, Logan, Ohio
Meals: 1 breakfast at our hotel; 2 luncheons, one at Warther's as part of the visit; one Pizza Crossing in Logan, Ohio; 1 Dinner at Millstone Southern BBQ Attractions: Warther's—one of the most remarkable attractions—in 1939 the German wood carvers stated Mr. Warther was the world's best wood Carver; Columbus Washboard, Pencil Sharpener's Museum, The Hocking Hills Byway Tour with local guide, John Glenn Astronomy Park, and the Hocking Hills Visitor Center.
Professional Tour Guide: Jerry Waldkoetter
Deluxe Motor Coach Transportation

Pricing: $499 based on double occupancy. Single supplement is $100. Please send in $115 deposit when making a reservation. Balance of $384 ($484 single) due on May 1st. Or send a check for $474 ($574 single) by Dec. 10th and receive a $25 discount. Cancellation insurance $38 double ($59 single) – due with deposit. You will receive a departure letter one month before the tour begins.

Our itinerary:
Tuesday, June 22, 2027
6:45am—Bus report Time—Yes there is daylight!
7am—Depart from McDonalds, Meadow Dr., North Tonawanda
7:30am—Pickup Tops, Main Street at Union Road, Williamsville
11am—Ernest Warther's Museum and Gardens. At the World's Fair in the New York City area in 1939, Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone, and B.F. Goodrich wanted one of his wood carvings, His answer to them, "A man's hobby should not be for sale". All of his carvings are in this one building. Private Tour Guide for our group.
Noon—Lunch at Warther's—Soup and Sandwich luncheon included in your tour.

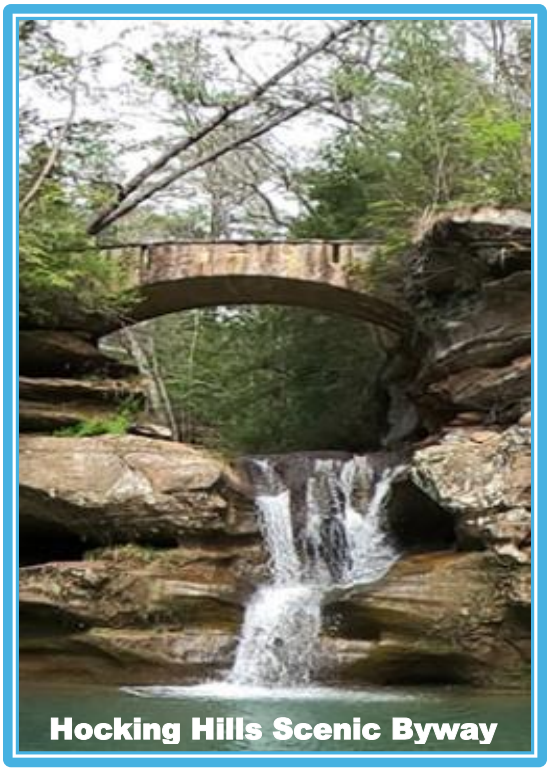

1pm or so—Depart for Logan, Ohio and the Pencil Sharpener's Museum located right next door to the Hocking Hills Regional Visitor Center. Spend a total of about 40 minutes seeing the Sharpener's Museum and gaining information on the Hocking Hills area.

5pm—Dinner at Millstone Southern BBQ.
By 7pm—Check-into Holiday Inn Express, Logan, Ohio

Wednesday, June 23, 2027
7am—Breakfast and Check-out
8am—Depart for the No. 1 Attraction in the area, The Hocking Hills State Park 20-mile Byway Drive with a local tour guide. One main stop- the John Glenn Astronomy Park—see the sun thru a filtered telescope. See glorious views and maybe a couple of water falls. Total drive-time about 2 and 1/2 hours of rock formations and wonderful forests.

Noon—Lunch at Pizza Crossing – voted #1 pizza in Ohio by TripAdvisor & USA Today
1pm—Tour Columbus Washboard Museum—in business since 1895. See how washboards are made and how to play a washboard.

2pm—Depart for WNY
6pm—Dinner at Cracker Barrel, Erie, PA on your own
8:30pm—Tops, Williamsville
9pm—McDonalds, North Tonawanda

Send check to:
Way To Go Tours, 580 Ward Rd.,
North Tonawanda, NY 14120.

Questions:
Call Jerry or Kathy at 716-693-0793

thewaytogotours.com
Thank You!