“To restore all things in Christ”

February 15, 2026

Dear Friends,

I sat on the porch looking out through the screen as the sun filtered down through the trees and glistened on the shrubs. The rays of light were just bringing warmth to the brisk morning air. It was nice to have a little sunshine after a cloudy start to our retreat. I enjoyed this moment of relaxation as I observed this glimpse of God's glory following a breakfast of scrambled eggs, fruit, and toast. With a second cup of coffee in hand, I soaked in the nature around me. Birds were flitting about from tree to tree, and an occasional stream of brother priests walked by conversing and grabbing a bit of morning exercise. This was the second day of our annual priest retreat.

This has been a much needed break for me personally. As a priest, I know well that we have to be forced to stop and break from the routine. It is all too easy to feel the need to take care of the work that mounts up daily. Not much is different for those of you who have to deal with the daily grind. Most of us feel a bit guilty if we aren't doing something. It is ingrained in our social construction. The feeling of responsibility is always acting upon us saying to us that we must work.

It is good to retreat. Even our Lord, who constantly faced the barrage of people looking for him, understood the need to go apart for a little while for rest. At various times during his 3-year ministry, he took his disciples aside so that they could rest awhile. We need renewal. We all know this. Unfortunately, we don't always understand what kind of renewal or rest we need. All too often, we choose to rest by lounging around, watching TV, or mindlessly scrolling through social media. In and of themselves, these aren't necessarily bad, but sometimes these things make us feel worse, and we need to address a deeper need. Often, we elect to participate in functions that don't really afford us the opportunity to reclaim our peace of mind and heart.

While it is good to be a part of friendly gatherings or wind down a bit with a good movie, we also need to break free from these things to cultivate what brings rest to our restless hearts.

Many people would think that priests exhibit good spiritual habits, and that we are always praying. Few think that we need renewal. However, we are susceptible to the same challenges as everyone else. We can get caught up in work. We can constantly respond to the many demands that are placed upon us and forget that we too need to reclaim moments of spiritual renewal so that we can act in accord with the call to which we have received.

To choose moments of retreat is to choose life. The Book of Sirach in the readings today tells us: “Before man are life and death, good and evil whichever he chooses shall be given him.” There are so many options that are placed before us each day. At any given moment, we have the choice to select life or death, good or

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you.

If you trust in God,
you too shall live.

He has set before you
fire and water
to whichever you choose,
stretch forth your hand.
Before man are

life and death,
good and evil,
whichever he chooses
shall be given to him.

evil. What we need is to pray for prudence so that we can select wisely. It is good to be spontaneous, but it is also good to be selective about what we do. If we choose rashly, we can end up sapping ourselves of the life-giving spirit.

This week we start Lent. It is a time to take stock once again before we enter into the wilderness of penance and renewal. What will we choose? Will we choose life? Or death? Good? Or evil? Lent is a time of retreat that urges us to do a little evaluation and examination of our lives. It beckons us to really look within at our interior motivations and our proclivity toward sin. Lent calls us to strip away those temptations and habits that cause death in our soul. It is a time of renewal so that we can once again turn to the Lord and find that he is the only one that gives life. Why? Because Jesus is life! If we use this Lent well, we will hear his voice. He will renew us. All he asks is that we come away for a little while during this Lenten season to listen once again and to discover the riches he has in store for us.

Lenten Guidelines for Fasting and Abstinence

Lent is observed as a period of penance intended to encourage individuals to move beyond personal interests and listen to the voice of God in our lives. During Lent, Catholics who are age 18 – 59 are required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting entails consuming one full meal and two smaller snacks; the combined portions of the snacks should not exceed that of a single meal. Catholics aged 14 and older must also refrain from eating meat on Fridays throughout Lent. Meat, for this purpose, includes red meat and poultry, while fish and vegetables are permitted.

Stations of the Cross

Please join us as we begin our Lenten devotion of Stations of the Cross. Come and walk with Christ on His journey to the Cross through prayer and reflection.

STARTING: This Friday at 7:00PM

We hope you will join us for this meaningful Lenten tradition.

School News

Dear Blue Jay Families,

We are excited to share that our students have officially kicked off our annual Read-athon week! Throughout the week, St. Pius X is buzzing with reading activities around the clock. Guest readers are visiting classrooms each day, and students have planned a variety of engaging literacy events. We look forward to celebrating our top readers with special rewards.

Please note that school will not be in session on Monday, February 16, 2026. Our faculty and staff will be attending a spiritual retreat led by Father James Kelleher at OLCC. We are deeply grateful to our PTO for generously funding this retreat. It will be a meaningful opportunity for renewal and reflection.

As a friendly reminder, spring break is quickly approaching. School will be closed from March 9 through March 13, 2026. We hope this time provides rest and rejuvenation for all our families.

We are also thrilled to announce that this year's Golf Classic will be held at Oso Golf Course on April 27th. Stay tuned for additional details on our official Golf Facebook page: St. Pius X Annual Golf Classic. With limited team slots available, we anticipate selling out quickly. For more information, please visit our school website.

In Wednesday's first reading, we reflect on King Solomon's great wisdom. Coincidentally, I am currently reading "Praying the Scriptures for Your Children" by Jodie Berndt. In Chapter 5, Berndt explores how we, as parents, can pray for wisdom and discernment for our children. Like Solomon, when we ask the Lord for wisdom, we open the door to countless other blessings. Solomon's request for a discerning heart was met with abundant grace, which is a beautiful reminder of God's generosity. Berndt encourages us that praying for our children in this way helps them see life through God's eyes and fosters a lifelong intimacy with Christ. What a profound gift we can offer simply through prayer.

I leave you with this prayer, shared by Berndt as a model for parents:

"Fill (child's name) with the knowledge of your will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives, so that they may live a life worthy of you, Lord, and please you in every way—bearing fruit and growing in knowledge of you."

--Colossians 1:9-10

God bless,

Mrs. Beth Hinojosa

Servant & Principal

Have a blessed week!
